We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:
It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear;
It is entirely noiseless;
A patented device prevents its being turned backward;
The needle cannot be set wrong;
Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;
It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars, enquire of

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1866.

It is not strange, I think, that Thad. Stevens' speech, delivered on the 10th inst., should attract the attention of the country. This is my excuse for noticing it so long after it occurred. The speech was delivered on the day that the last steamer sailed, and I could not notice it. Mr. Stevens had been revolving in his mind for some time the attack of the President upon him, and had not decided a day or two before the delivery of the speech whether to notice it or not. Mr. Sumner took the dignified course of paying not the slightest attention to it. A great concourse of people had gathered in the galleries of the House to hear Mr. Stevens, because they supposed he was going to reply to the President. The fact that he was going to speak was announced in the papers that morning, and you can imagine the disappointment of everybody when Mr. Stevens took up a roll of MSS. and stated that he must apologize for the tameness of his speech, but it was prepared in January, and he had had no opportunity to read it since. As the President's speech was made on the 22d of February, of course it could not be a reply. But Mr. Price, of Iowa, in the midst of the speech, saw fit to interrupt him, and ask him a question which led to the celebrated passage in which the old man took the ground that the President never did make the speech. I am suspicious that the interruption was a thing agreed upon beforehand, as Mr. Stevens has done that thing before. It was a very effective bit of acting at any rate, and Mr. Stevens was never more solemn in his life than when he declared that the President did not make the offensive speech attributed to him.

There are various stories respecting the way in which the President took the sarcasm of Mr. Stevens. One of his friends writes to the Baltimore Sun that he was very angry and spoke of Mr. Stevens "in defiant terms." This doubtless is all bosh, for no one can be "defiant" over what Mr. Stevens said. Very likely the President did not like it, but he was shrewd enough to keep his dislike to himself. One person reports that the President laughed over it as he saw the report in the Intelligencer. Mr. Stevens certainly is quite merry over it out of the House, however solemn he may be in the House. He considers that it was the only notice he could well take of it. I think so too, but it might have been better still to have followed Mr. Sumner's example and taken no notice at all of the speech.

A good deal of laughter has been caused by the dispatches of Mr. Seward and Mr. Weed, who were in New York, to the President, approving of his speech—especially of Mr. Seward's, which wound up with the wonderful sentence: "The speech is triumphant and the country is happy." Gossip from New York says Mr. Seward had been taking too much champagne when he sent that dispatch, and I suspect that rumor was right that time, though it gets sadly out of the way occasionally, and is never to be fully relied upon.

The Postoffice Department has closed its lettings for mail service during the next four years. In the State of California there are seventy-seven routes in all, in Oregon twenty-one routes, Nevada ten routes, Washington Territory nineteen routes, Idaho seven routes, Utah twenty-five routes, Colorado twenty-one routes, Arizona eleven routes, and New Mexico eight routes. The competition was fierce, much more so than has been apparent for years, and the prices it is said are fifteen to twenty per cent below the last letting. I append the figures of some of the most prominent of the lettings:

San Francisco to Sacramento City $18,000, (present price $20,000); San Francisco to Stockton $15,000, (present price $20,000); San Francisco to Los Angeles, $18,000, (now $24,000); Cloverdale to Arcata, $11,000. The great route from Lincoln in California to Portland in Oregon—624 miles—is let to Henry W. Corbett for $179,000 per year, (now $235,000). This is a tremendous reduction, and attracts general attention here.

If all the other mail lettings in other parts of the country are as favorable as those quoted above, the Postoffice Department will be able to save quite a large amount. All that is saved in this way should be appropriated in new routes. Just as fast as the finances of the country will admit of it—as soon as the department is self-sustaining—new routes and new offices should be opened.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, made a sensation in the Senate on Friday of last week. His course on the veto Message and on reconstruction generally, has surprised his friends. It was supposed that he would go with Mr. Nye, but instead of that, he went with Mr. Saulsbury, Cowan and McDougall. But on Friday he introduced into the Senate a joint resolution in which he makes the proposition to give rebellious States universal amnesty if they will establish universal suffrage. Mr. Sumner, upon hearing the proposition, jumped to his feet with the exclamation, "I welcome the Senator from Nevada, with open arms!" Of course there was a good deal of "smiling" around the Senate, both of Stewart and Sumner, but it was good-natured. What Stewart is after now, one cannot well see. It is certainly a little too late to admit of the proposition. The rebels will scout it for the simple reason that they feel certain of universal amnesty anyhow. Suppose, however, that the President had made this offer to the South last June? The idea is, Abraham Lincoln's universal amnesty for universal suffrage! It would have been accepted and all controversy on the subject would have been at an end. It is deeply to be regretted that it was not made. Then was the golden opportunity which the President let slip. Now he does not seem to desire any such event.

In the course of his speech Mr. Stewart gave the subjoined letter from the President to Gov. Sharkey, of Miss. [This letter has already been published in our columns.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

Mr. Henderson, of Missouri, remarked upon this:

> "I am under some obligations to the Senator from Nevada also, and I desire to express them. The Senator from Nevada reads a telegraphic communication from the President, dated last August, to Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, urging upon him to have the Mississippi convention adopt or to ingraft upon the constitution of Mississippi the principle of negro suffrage. I will state that last October, when I was in this city, the communication was laid before me by the President, and I was authorized by the President to say in a public speech before the people of Missouri that such were his views. I was not authorized to publish the telegram itself as directed to Governor Sharkey. I did not do so, but I did state that the President in a private conversation with me, and that I was authorized so to say, expressed himself in favor of negro suffrage, and in a speech at my town in Missouri I stated the precise views of the President as they are now stated before the Senate this morning. The newspaper press all over the country has denounced that statement to be false. The press of my State not agreeing with me in sentiment has been very free in its abuse and declarations of the falsehood of that statement; that the President was not in favor of negro suffrage; that he had never so expressed himself. Now, I suppose that the Senator from Nevada has it from the President himself.
>
> Mr. Stewart.—From Governor Sharkey.
> Mr. Henderson.—I am under very great obligations to the Senator from Nevada for putting before the country a corroboration of what I have said. I have been left almost without proof of the fact until this morning. It is now established that this is a genuine document, and that the President, even as early as last August, was in favor of negro suffrage; and I presume that he is yet in favor of negro suffrage."

The election news from New Hampshire has dampened the ardor of the Copperheads in Congress. They did not expect to carry the State but they were confidently hoping to lessen the Republican majority. Instead of that their own vote fell off.

The fact is, this large vote was polled through genuine pluck. Republicans holding office here and at home made up their minds to vote openly for their principles and ticket, whether the President liked it or not. This was the ground taken by Postmaster-General Dennison. The Copperheads began to circulate lies respecting him and his course. They said he would remove any Postmasters who were active in trying to elect the ticket. Then the Republican delegation in Congress went to see the Postmaster-General and asked him very plainly if there was any truth in the stories. He came out with a printed letter boldly advocating the triumph of the Republican ticket. This pluck won the day. But if he and the President had gone over, bag and baggage to the enemy, still the State would have gone republican, for the people of the good old Granite State are awake and not in the humor to be trifled with.

So it will also be (I am confident) in Connecticut, the little Nutmeg State. She is really a little nearer the wind, but she will come out all right on election day.

Mr. McCulloch has hard work to carry his measures through Congress. Two months ago, and almost any measure would have been adopted that had his approval. But since then he has greatly offended many of the "radicals." He is, to start, opposed to the test oath. He wants to appoint men to office in the South who were concerned in the rebellion, and the plea is that the "Union men" don't know enough to fill the vacant places. In the next place, the Secretary has convulsions every time the phrase "impartial suffrage" is mentioned in his presence. He was very much "put out" with the suffrage bill for this District. But his chief offense is his sharp support of the veto policy of the President. He is against Congress on the subject of reconstruction—so Congress is against him on the subject of finance. It is not to be wondered at that I know of. The speculators are of course all against the Secretary. Most of the bankers and merchants are also, and in consequence sound financial principles are not well supported in Congress. If Republicans desire to bite off their own noses to spite McCulloch I believe there is no law to prevent them, but the time will come when they will perceive that they are noseless. The Secretary is not in good humor over the condition of things in Congress. He knows his unpopularity there and talks of resigning. If he were to do it the credit of the Government would be shocked by the step. His friends will not permit it if they can help it.

There has been much excitement over the Loan bill within a day or two, and it has been finally been re-committed to the committee of Ways and Means.

Secretary McCulloch has tried very hard to carry it, but he has many personal enemies among the Republicans, because of his course on other questions.

I noticed the following in the Intelligencer of yesterday, which may be of interest to your readers:

> "A meeting of Western gentlemen in the interests of this road was held at the office of the company, 355 F street, on Saturday evening.
> On motion of George Gibbs, Esq., of Washington Territory, Hon. George H. Williams, of Oregon, was chosen chairman, and John R. McBride, of Idaho Territory, was elected secretary. Colonel W. E. Rowland, the commissioner representing the interests of the company in this city, was introduced to the meeting, and gave an exposition of the wishes of the company and of the legislation which they desire of this Congress, and asked the co-operation of the gentlemen present to secure it.
>
> Colonel Simpson, formerly of Washington Territory, made some remarks on the practicability of the Northern route, based upon personal observation, which was listened to with great attention and interest.
>
> On motion, a committee of five, viz: Geo. Gibbs, Esq., Judge McBride, Colonel Rowland, Hon. F. Fuller, and Hon. Edward Lander—was appointed to prepare an address urging upon Congress the propriety of granting the aid asked for.
>
> Several addresses were delivered in which the military and commercial importance of the Northern line were pointed out, as demanding early action."

Black Spirits and White.

President Johnson's last speech to the colored people of the District of Columbia will fill the Democracy with unutterable dismay. A few days ago the Democratic journal of this city called on the members of its party everywhere to stand by Johnson because he was standing by white men. Said the Herald: "The majority of the people of the United States are not willing to degrade themselves to the level of the inferior races; and President Johnson does not desire it. This Government was made by white men. President Johnson thinks white men should control it. He loves the white man. Should we not sustain him in his efforts to prevent our degradation?" He is manfully defending the line between citizenship and suffrage for the benefit of the white citizens of the Union." Democrats should stand by him and leave those to denounce him who feel that they are no better, intellectually and socially, than the negro." Hardly have the Democracy found time to rise to the support of the President in response to this pathetic appeal, when the announcement is made that he has been addressing a throng of "niggers" in Washington, designating them as his "colored friends," and expressing the deepest satisfaction in being called to "MINGLE WITH THEM in celebrating the day which commenced their freedom." Do the Democracy now want to "mingle" with their "colored friends" too? Isn't the Herald afraid of the "degradation" which it talked of so frantically not more than a week ago? The President who was the "friend of the white man" has been associating—"mingling" with "niggers." The man who was to save the Democracy from "degradation," it turns out, is "no better, socially, than the negro." Will Democrats imitate the man whom they admire? Will they "mingle"—will the Herald editors" mingle?" As it seems to be a Democratic affair, all round we merely stand aloof and say:

"Black spirits and white,
Blue spirits and gray,
Mingle, mingle, mingle,
You that mingle may."

Oregon Matters at the East.

A letter from Washington to the San Francisco Bulletin, dated March 19th, contains the following:

On the 14th inst., Senator Williams presented a memorial from the Legislature of Oregon, objecting to the passage of any law imposing a tax on mines, mining, or [illegible] and to The Committee on Mines.

Mr. Nesmith, on the [illegible] day, presented a memorial from the Legislature of Oregon in favor of the annexation of the county of Walla Walla, in Washington Territory, to the State of Oregon. It was referred to Committee on Territories and ordered printed. The Walla Walla people complain that they are too far from the capital of their Territory, and that the Territorial Judges neglect to hold court among them as they should, to their great detriment. The boundary line of Oregon divides the valley in which they live, and they think they might better all be in Oregon. Walla Walla is the most populous county in Washington, and the Territory as a whole will scarcely like to lose it. The grievance complained of in regard to judicial neglect is not peculiar to Washington. The Territorial Judges generally are given to neglect, and long [illegible] spend more time at the National Capital, hunting after places, than in their respective districts. They may thrive in the rich mining Territories, but it is at the risk of their good names.

The [illegible] Legislature [illegible] Congress to include Portland in the port of entry at the mouth of the Columbia river, and to establish bonded warehouses at that place. The Senate Committee on Commerce has this prayer under consideration.

At the instance of Senator Williams the Committee on Finance has been instructed to inquire into the expediency of the construction by the United States at Portland of a building to be used for a bonded warehouse, postoffice, and United States Circuit and District Courts.

The Senate, on the 13th inst., passed a bill to grant the right of way to the Cascade Railroad Company through a military reserve in Washington Territory. The Company has [illegible] operation a railroad on the Cascade portage [illegible] Columbia river. As a portion of this road goes through a military reserve of the United States, doubts have arisen as to the right of transit and the validity of the Company's charter. This bill, therefore, secures the right of way and [illegible] the charter.

I am informed that the Oregon Steam Navigation Company have a new steamer [illegible] nearly completed at New York. It has a carrying capacity of 2,400 tons, and is equal in strength and [illegible] to most of the new steamships in the Pacific coast. She will reach San Francisco by September next, and immediately begin regular trips to Portland. The Company's agent here says she will make the round trip in ten days.

[illegible]

[illegible] the 14th inst.:

The direct road to Rocky Bar and Yuba via Goodrich's Ranch, is now open for footmen, and will probably soon be in condition for animals. The Express runs regularly over the route every week. Wells, Fargo & Co. ought to use this route hereafter, and we imagine they will do so [illegible] Several of our citizens, including Henry Sayre, County [illegible] Deputy Recorder, went over the route this week. We trust these officers to the tender mercies of Rocky Bar without fear regarding their salvation.

[illegible] the sale of the Methodist Church building last Monday evening, was well attended and considerable sparring occurred between the up-town and down-town [illegible]. Up-town was generally in favor of purchasing Peyton's saloon, for county purposes. Down town went for buying the Church. The vote was in favor of selling the Church. Towards aiding in the purchase of the saloon building, some $2,000 was subscribed, to be paid to the county by the surrender of county warrants.

One of the claims of Moore & Co. on Buena Vista Bar, under the supervision of Charley Young, Esq., sluiced up this week, after four days run, and weighed out about [illegible] The claims along the Bluff are good [illegible]

Abijah Gibson was killed by the caving of a bank while working on Buena Vista Bar, on the 9th inst. He was from Barry county, Missouri, and aged 21 years.

We obtain the following from the Owyhee Avalanche of the 7th inst.:

The Dardanelles is the name of a ledge discovered six [illegible] width of thirty-three feet of quartz and very rich in gold and silver. The Avalanche does not [illegible] it is the most important discovery ever made in Idaho.

Some pack trains and six prairie schooners have arrived already from California with freight.

Letters from New York and San Francisco prove the genuineness of the diamonds. They have been tested by different lapidaries and pronounced the real thing. They were all taken from the surface. The Avalanche thinks by going down in the earth as Wilson, the original discoverer did, they will increase in size and value.

The prize fight for $400 between Tulsey Fay and Harry Cooper, comes off on the 30 of June, within fifteen miles of Silver City.

Geo. S. Ladd, Superintendent California Telegraph Company, writes that the company will send an agent to Idaho and Montana this summer to see what can be done about a telegraph.

State Items.

A Washington letter says that Mr. H. W. Corbett, who has taken the contract to carry the daily mail from Oroville, California, to Portland, Oregon, intends to put a line of excellent passenger coaches on the route.

The decreased cost of mail carriage on this coast under the new contracts, shortly to go into operation, will amount to several hundred thousand dollars. This saving to the Government is the result of a competition which has not existed before.

The Mountaineer of the 25th says: In the Circuit Court, yesterday, James Buchanan, found guilty of cattle stealing, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. Jas. Thompson (colored) found guilty of an assault with intent to commit a rape, was also sent up for one year.

Dr. Steele, acting assistant Surgeon at the Dalles, has been ordered to Fort Stevens.

The Mountaineer says large numbers of miners are going up by way of the Dalles and White Bluffs route. The distance between those points, is easily made in five days.

The Umatilla Index states that the roads in Eastern Oregon are getting better, that the streams are falling and grass is becoming plenty.

Ruckle & Co.'s quartz mill in Powder river valley, recently cleaned up $7,000 from one week's run.

Capt. Coppinger, of the 14th U. S. Infantry, arrived with his company, at Umatilla, on the 19th instant.

FRUIT KILLED.—The Auburn Stars and Stripes says that the frosts have killed much embryo fruit in the vicinity of Dutch Flat and other high localities in that county. The peaches particularly suffered.

Crinoline is doomed. Neither the Empress Eugenie nor any of her ladies of honor wore it at the last State ball.

DATES TO APRIL 25.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—In the Senate yesterday, Conness, of California, offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the committee on commerce to inquire into the expediency of prohibiting the importation, transportation or sale of nitro-glycerine.

Washburne, of Illinois, said in the House, that the committee on commerce, of which he is chairman, would report soon on the subject of nitro-glycerine.

Concerning the Richmond bank specie captured in Georgia, and how claimed by the banks, recent investigation shows that a few weeks before the evacuation, the banks loaned the Confederate Government 300,000 in gold, of which $80,000 was drawn, leaving a balance of $24,000 on deposit. The Government will, therefore, assert its title to not only the $100,000 captured in Georgia, but also the $110,000 in custody of the banks.

The House Judiciary committee yesterday, made a report against the modification of the test oath, as asked by the President, Secretary of the Treasury and Postmaster General. The report declares that neither the President nor any of his cabinet had any right to dispense with the law, and that such an example is dangerous and not to be tolerated.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Among the documents sent to the House to-day, on Mexican affairs, is the following interesting diplomatic correspondence. Drouyn de L'Huys says:

France went to Mexico to exercise the right of war which is exercised by the United States, and not in virtue of any purpose of intervention, concerning which, she disagreed with the United States. France went there not to proselyte, but to obtain reparations and guarantees. Being there, she sustains the Government, which is founded on the consent of the people. She now wishes to recall what remains of the army, at a moment when she will be able to do it with safety to French citizens and due respect to herself. Seward replies, whatever the motives of invasion, the means taken for destroying the Republican Institutions, are regarded by the United States as without authority and contrary to the will of the people. The military demand of satisfaction seems to have become subordinate to a political revolution, for which France is responsible.

The United States have seen no satisfactory evidence that the Mexican people have accepted the so-called Empire and the withdrawal of the French is deemed necessary to determine that question. It therefore recognizes the ancient Republic, and can in no case consent to involve itself directly or indirectly with Maximilian.

Drouyn de L'Huys replies that it depends upon the Federal Government to facilitate the withdrawal. He also raises a question as to the compatibility of Monarchical institutions on this continent, as witness Brazil, which Seward declines to discuss, but re-asserts our desire for the withdrawal of the French troops. Drouyn de L'Huys sums up that the United States acknowledges the right to make war in Mexico, while we admit also the principles of non-intervention. We have not crossed the ocean merely to show our power or to inflict chastisement. We hope the legitimate object of our expedition will soon be reached and are striving to make arrangements with the Emperor Maximilian, which by satisfying our interests and honor, will permit us to consider at an end the services of our army upon Mexican soil. We fall back at that moment on the principle of non-intervention, and from that moment accept it as the rule of our conduct. We expect the American people will themselves conform to the law which they invoke by observing in regard to Mexico, strict neutrality. Seward says, diplomatic stimulation given by the President in behalf of the nation can at least be but expressions of confident expectation on his part; that the personal administration is ever changing in conformity to the national will, but he does not construe the settled principles and policy of the people. With this explanation Seward says it is the opinion of the President that France need not for a moment delay her proposed withdrawal of her military forces from Mexico, putting her principles of non-intervention into full practice in regard to Mexico through any apprehension that the United States will prove untrue to the principles and policy in that respect, which on their behalf it has been my duty to maintain in this now lengthened correspondence.

Suit against shippers of Nitro-Glycerine—The Cholera.

Wells, Fargo & Co. have sued Burstinbender, Prentice & Dowe, shippers of nitro-glycerine, laying their damages at $100,000. The court held the defendants to bail in the sum of $100,000.

No fresh cases of cholera have appeared on the steamer England.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Health officer Bissel reports from on board the hospital ship Falcon, last evening, that since last report ten deaths have occurred on board that ship from cholera. Twenty new cases were received on board from the Virginia, and eleven deaths had occurred on board the England, but not from cholera. There are 78 cases of cholera on board the hospital ship.

Charges of Murder Withdrawn.

BOSTON, April 24.—The charges implicating Dodge, alias Scratch-Gravel, in the murder of Joyce, in Roxbury some eight months ago, have been withdrawn, investigation showing that he was not in Massachusetts at the time the murder was committed.

Congressional.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Mr. Schenck's army establishment bill which is being considered in the House of Representatives, by sections, for amendment, has occupied seven days and is only half through with. It differs from the Senate bill in being more favorable to the volunteers, and providing also for a veteran reserve corps, and in reducing the staff department. The section relating to the provost marshal's bureau, as amended yesterday, requires it shall be closed within six months after the passage of the bill.

The House held a protracted session last night on Pacific railroad matters, when the bill in aid of the Northern Pacific Railroad was pressed to vote, but the opposition carried an adjournment. The outside pressure for the passage of this bill is tremendous, and the struggle in the House is very earnest.

Tennessee Legislature.

CHICAGO, April 25.—In the Tennessee House of Representatives, on the 23d, the majority report on elections, recommending the admission of the bolters to their seats, was rejected by a vote of 42 to 18—and by the same vote, the minority report refusing the bolters seats, was adopted.

Executive Vengeance—Position of Indiana Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, April 24th.—The President sent to the Senate yesterday, the following nominations:—Colonel Samuel McKelvy of Pittsburg, U. S. Marshal for the western district of Pennsylvania vice Alex. Murdock, removed; R. Stanbury, collector of Internal Revenue of Pennsylvania, vice Colonel Tag[illegible] resigned; Josiah Hetrich, collector of Internal Revenue of the 11th Pennsylvania district, and Robert Clark, assessor for the 15th Pennsylvania district. The President also appointed Wade Hampton, Postmaster of Pittsburg, Pa., vice Van Bakhurst, removed; also Gen. Sam. Casey collector of Internal Revenue for the 2d Cincinnati district vice Taylor, removed; Gen. Wm. Grain, collector of the 6th Indiana district, vice present incumbent, removed.

The Chicago Times Washington special dispatch, says: The President yesterday informed a prominent West Pennsylvania Congressman, who had called relative to the changes being made in that State, that he intended to remove every officer who was opposing his policy.

The Republican Congressmen from the State of Indiana have had a conference relative to the plan before the Reconstruction committee which proposes to require universal suffrage in Southern States by 1876, and four out of nine members declared themselves opposed to it.

Minister Appointed.

Major General Daniel E. Sickles is to be Minister to the Hague; vice James S. Pike resigned.

Army Matters.

The proceedings of the board composed of Generals Sherman, Meade and Thomas, which convened at St. Louis last March, to recommend Brevet appointments in the regular army, have been sent to the Senate. They say if the question was a new one, we would recommend the abolition of the whole system of Brevet rank, and substitute in its place some other reward for gallantry in action, such as medals commemorative of the event, or to make promotions to vacancies regardless of previous rank. They however express a decided opinion that the Brevet rank should only be conferred for distinguished service in the field in the presence of the enemy, and that if meritorious service in noncombattant duty should be thus rewarded, there would be great confusion. They recommend twenty officers for Brevet rank of Major-General and sixty-six for the Brevet rank of Brigadier-General.

Validity of the Order Prohibiting Exportation of Arms to Mexico.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—It appears from official documents that in October last, Senor Romero, addressed two notes to the Secretary of State, remarking on the orders issued by Gen. McDowell, commanding the Department of California, prohibiting the exportation by land of arms into Mexico. They were referred to the Attorney-General, who says no military officer has any right to issue an order to which he cannot lawfully compel obedience by the force under his command. The test, therefore, of the validity in point of law of this order, is whether he can lawfully employ forces subject to his control, to prevent American citizens and other persons within our jurisdiction from transporting arms or munitions of war as merchandise across the frontiers into Mexico, in the present state of that country. The Attorney-General says he is of the opinion that the order of General McDowell was not intended to interfere with trade conducted by our people, as the authorities have declared it to be lawful, and it is therefore in conformity to law. The order was probably intended to be directed against belligerents contending in Mexico, and such expeditions and enterprises are of course contrary to our statute, and nothing is necessary to impugn the validity of the order in respect to them. The Attorney-General apprehended it to be well settled that merchants may lawfully sell at home to a belligerent power contraband articles, subject to seizure in transition. The right of neutrals to transport, and hostile powers to seize, are conflicting rights, and neither party can charge the other with a criminal act. This is the view taken by Chancellor Kent.

Statement of the Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The statement of the public debt for April will show a reduction of six millions. The receipts of internal revenue last week were $3,404,104. There are $130,000,000 of available funds in the treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to lease or sell such marine hospitals as he may deem advisable, and also to sell revenue cutters if found ill adapted to the service, and expend the proceeds in the purchase or construction of other vessels.

Mail Lettings—Appointments.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The mail lettings to-day for the western States were the largest ever held, and resulted in prices more favorable to the department than forty years ago.

Moses F. Odell was yesterday confirmed as naval officer at New York. The President has filled all the appointments in Virginia for the the internal revenue with parties who it is said have taken the test oath.

Removal of Deceased Union Soldiers to Cemeteries.

The Quartermaster General has records of the interment of fully 100,000 Union soldiers, a large number of whom it will be necessary to remove to cemeteries. One million dollars will be required to protect them from desecration, and it is generally recommended that such a system be adopted.

Five per cent. Loan to be Offered.

NEW YORK, April 24.—It appears to be taken for granted that Secretary McCulloch will offer a 5 per cent. loan in pairs, and the degree of public confidence in the experiment may be judged from the steady advance of national securities on this expectation.

Great Suit for False Imprisonment—Civil Rights Commissioners.

Dexter, the alleged cotton swindler, has brought suit against Gen. Woods, commanding the Department of Alabama, for false imprisonment, etc., damages laid at $500,000, etc. The suit will be heard in Mobile. Dexter has engaged Ben. Butler for one of his counsel. Messrs. R. H. Shannon, Charles Claiborne and R. G. Kerr, Commissioners under the civil rights bill, took the oath of office on Monday, April 16th, before the Judge of the United States Court in New Orleans. No doubt commissioners for the other States will also be promptly appointed by the respective Judges.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The California, Oregon and Mexican Steamship Company have substituted the Continental for the John L. Stephens, which is advertised to sail for Mazatlan and other Mexican ports on Tuesday next, May 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M.

The following are the rates of passage to New York by the Golden Age, which sails for Panama next Monday, 30th inst., to connect with the Arizona at Aspinwall: First cabin, outside rooms, $230; first cabin, inside rooms, $180; second cabin, $125; steerage, $85.

The conductors and drivers of the street cars, numbering 200 men, are about to form an association for mutual protection. The first step they propose to take, is to ask that 12 hours may constitute a day's labor.

The Governor has appointed Dr. Elliott quarantine officer for this city.

Monetary—Trade—Mining Stocks.

The telegraph quotes gold and exchange in New York as follows: April 23d, gold $1 26¾; April 24th, gold $1 26⅞. Legal tenders are without decided change and the demand is slightly improved. There was a sale of at the board at 79¾, regular. The leading brokers quote 79¼@80 as extremes. Trade matters remain quiet, influenced largely by the eastern advices, which report commercial affairs unsettled. Money is easy at rates current for many weeks past. Yellow Jacket advanced $37 50, Ophir $4 50, Confidence $2, and Overman $1; while Chollar Potosi fell $22 50, Belcher and Alpha $10 each, and Bullion $2 40, as compared with the corresponding board yesterday.

The Markets.

Candles—well known brands may be quoted at 20@20½ cts. Petroleum—Eastern assorted brands remain at 75@77½, is firm with but little movement. Flour—superfine half sacks $5 75, qr. sacks $6@6 25. Wheat—sales steady but quiet, sales include 12,000 sacks prime white Australia seed at $1 60@$1 80, do. good $1 [illegible] per 100 lbs. Barley—firm but quick sales, 700 sacks choice brewing at $1, and 1,500 do. feed at 80@85cts. per 100 lbs. Oats—beyond jobbing sales we have nothing to report. We quote $1 85@$2 per 100 lbs from inferior to prime. Potatoes—depressed, sales, 500 sacks at 75@80cts per 100 lbs. as extremes for Petaluma, Bodega and Tomales. The sales for the week reach 100,000 lbs. Wool—the sales for the week reach 150,000 pounds. We quote 10@20cts. for fair to prime and 12 cts for good burry. Hides—dry California, dull at 13cts for selected slaughter.

DON'T BELIEVE THEM.—If any one tell you that they know a better remedy for Coughs and Colds than the Genuine Hall's Pulmonary Balsam, don't believe it. There is no better remedy, as any one who has used it can testify.

Attention Portland Light Artillery.—You are requested to meet at your Armory this evening at 7½ o'clock.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 605 AND 607 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, Buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held last evening at eight o'clock, Mayor Failing presiding.

The following members were present: Lowensdale, McCalvin, Fleischner, Roesch, Ish, Strowbridge, Thompson and Watkins.

The records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Petitions of Anna Lambert, Joseph [illegible] and James [illegible], for license to sell liquor, were referred.

[illegible] of J. M. Breck [illegible] lot 2, block 1 [illegible] of establishing a shingle market, was indefinitely postponed.

[illegible] of the owners of property to the extent of [illegible] feet, adjacent to the proposed improvement of Second street, and a remonstrance to the extent of 800 [illegible] to the proposed improvement of Salmon street, were read.

[illegible] of Mr. Jack Harris for permission to use the [illegible] Market block as a residence was referred.

[illegible] contractors, were granted further time to comply with their contract for the improvement of [illegible] street.

W. B. Cooper & Co., were granted a portion of Alder street and First street, for thirty days in building.

[illegible] of the residents of Clay, Market, Mill and [illegible] streets asking the Council to open those streets from Seventh to Tenth streets, was referred.

A petition for a change of grade at the intersection of [illegible] and Taylor streets was referred.

[illegible] Walker, engineer employed by the river navigation committee, made a report on the proposed improvement, which was ordered to be placed on file.

[illegible] of the proposed improvement of Taylor street [illegible], between Front and First streets, was ordered published. A similar improvement on Salmon street, between Front and First streets, proposed by the property owners, was not objected to.

The City Engineer reported the probable cost of improving Front street with the Nicolson pavement from the north line of Pine street, to the north line of C street [illegible] $14,515. The report was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The City Marshal reported in reference to the purchase of [illegible] laws for the use of the Common Council that [illegible] copy could be obtained as the Secretary of State [illegible] Used to dispose of them by sale. He also [illegible] all liens cancelled for the improvement of Washington street, and both reports were accepted.

The Treasurer made the first quarterly report for [illegible], was ordered on file.

[illegible] were authorized in payment of claims against [illegible] follows: Charles Stewart, constructing sidewalks of blocks 167 and 168, on Madison street, [illegible], care of dredger one month, $40 [illegible]; Smith & Davis, paint and oil for dredger, [illegible] & Joyne, work at engine house No. 2, [illegible] Pittock, advertising, $6; S. Simmons, [illegible] streets $3 50.

[illegible] offered on the evening of March 28th, [illegible] the purchase of the Mount Crawford Cemetery [illegible] was taken from the table and indefinitely postponed.

[illegible] to amend ordinance No. 170, relative to [illegible], was read a third time and referred to the police committee.

[illegible] authorizing the chief engineer of the fire department to perform the duties of fire warden for the [illegible].

[illegible] providing for the construction of three [illegible] at the following places: Crossing of [illegible] Seventh and Morrison and Third and [illegible] streets, was passed.

[illegible] to provide for the improvement of the [illegible] Willamette river, and authorizing the [illegible] 000 at 12 per cent per annum, interest [illegible] annually, the five years from the first day [illegible], was passed, under a suspension of the rules.

[illegible] providing for the time and manner of the [illegible] of Front street, between Pine and the north [illegible]. An ordinance authorizing sundry repairs [illegible] House No. 2, at a cost not to exceed $400, [illegible] and time.

Mr. Thompson offered a notice relative to a change in [illegible] of sidewalks, which was adopted, and [illegible].

[illegible] adjourned.

[illegible].—A flock of those resulting wool bearing animals [illegible] driven through Front street yesterday afternoon [illegible] a couple of butchers took a freak and dashed [illegible] of J. L. Parrish & Co., much to the amusement of a crowd of bystanders and to the great astonishment [illegible] stockkeeper, Mr. Fogg, who has [illegible] "varieties of goods," and transacted many [illegible] on the coast, from Nevada to [illegible] was called on to reject such a mass of customers at one time. They flocked in upon him like crazy [illegible] of a quartz ledge, and did not [illegible] until the last sheep was corralled, [illegible] around, [illegible] counters of the store. Then as to keep [illegible] excited crowd of people outside [illegible] "[illegible] sheep" could get out for about [illegible] the store was cleared it was found [illegible] such an unusual occurrence was [illegible].

[illegible] Lincoln lodge No. 1, I. O. G. T., [illegible] the following officers for the ensuing [illegible] on Tuesday evening last: H. G. [illegible]; Miss Jennie Newby, W. V. T.; Charles [illegible]; James Gilbert, W. F. S.; Miss Carrie Kan[illegible]; W. D. Pittenger, W. M.; Mrs. Mary McDow[illegible]; C. Stiles, W. O. G.; Miss [illegible]; Mrs. Sarah [illegible], W. L. H. S.

[illegible] of Portland Lodge No. 20, held in [illegible] the following [illegible] were chosen: [illegible]; Mrs. W. H. Brecht, W. V. T.; [illegible], W. S.; [illegible] Steel, W. F. S.; Miss [illegible], W. T.; D. Cole, W. M.; Miss Mattie Soon, W. [illegible], W. O. G.

[illegible].—The steamship [illegible], Capt. John H. Kelly, left this port at [illegible] A. M. for San Francisco, with Wells, Fargo [illegible] $6,000 in treasure, and [illegible] 441 sks rolls leather, 2,038 boxes fruit, [illegible] 26 lager barrels, 13 cases tmdse, 5 bales hides, [illegible] boots, 22 dry hides, 15 green hides, [illegible] 20 pkgs machinery, 50 boxes eggs, 4 half [illegible] bacon, 15 barrels pitch, 14 cases [illegible], 18 pkgs furniture, 160 sks [illegible].

[illegible].—This being the anniversary of the [illegible] of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, it [illegible] will be generally celebrated by the [illegible]. The steamer Senator, of the People's Transportation Company, will arrive in this city about 10 [illegible] members of the lodge from Oregon City and [illegible] Lodge No. 2, of Portland, with the Metropolitan [illegible] will join them, on an excursion to Vancouver [illegible] a picnic will be given by the new lodge of that [illegible].

[illegible] COURT.—J. F. HOFFMAN, J., April 26th, [illegible] Anthony, and Sam. Baxter, having indulged [illegible] fight at the Star of the Union Saloon, plead guilty, upon being arraigned, and were each sentenced [illegible] a fine of $5 and costs, which was accordingly done, [illegible] they were discharged. Wm. Johnson, one of the [illegible], paid a fine of $5 and costs. A quarrel between [illegible] a part of the attention of the court [illegible] the afternoon and the case was continued until [illegible] o'clock to-day.

[illegible] OF [illegible].—[illegible], Esq., of [illegible] Express is now in the city. The company, [illegible], Waldron & Buchanan, now have their [illegible] running, and are making regular trips. The [illegible] from Helena [illegible] Walla Walla on Tuesday [illegible] in about ten days. The time [illegible] to be but five days, consumed in the [illegible] from Portland to the Missouri river, in future [illegible].

[illegible].—Tobin, Dixon & Davisson, corner of [illegible] Sacramento streets, are acknowledged to be [illegible] importers of this coast, and in offering [illegible] and extensive stocks to the trade, ask that [illegible] Oregon give them a call. Their advertisement [illegible] found in our columns this morning.

[illegible] & [illegible].—The firm mentioned in the above [illegible] the pioneer firms of this city, who [illegible] an extensive dry goods trade for years. They are now receiving large additions to their stock and are [illegible] to invite their former customers to inspect, in [illegible], something very nice, at one of the new brick [illegible] on First street, between Yamhill and Taylor streets.

[illegible].—The Fenian Guard drill on Tuesday evening [illegible] by a delegation of the Zouave Cadets, and [illegible] being present their exercise at drill was [illegible] though with [illegible]. There are now in the city three [illegible] three companies of Infantry in the State [illegible].

[illegible] SALEM.—From Mr. Beck, of the firm of [illegible] & Waldron, we learn that the Salem Lumber Company's mill, known as the Greer's saw-mill near Salem, was burned on Monday night last. Loss about $14,000, [illegible]. The fire it is thought was the work of an [illegible].

[illegible] AND AUCTION SALES.—Our advertising [illegible] just now present numerous matters of interest, [illegible] more important than the real estate and auction [illegible] of Mr. Richardson.

THE FIRE ALARM last evening was occasioned by sparks [illegible] from a flue, in a room at the Liberty Brewery setting fire to some clothes hanging beneath, which were [illegible], thus igniting the ceiling. The damage was [illegible].

[illegible].—The Marshal's sale of City property for [illegible] taxes was continued until to-day. Bargains [illegible] made at these tax sales in real estate.

[illegible] SALE.—The sale of Mr. L. Cahn's furniture [illegible] Mr. Richardson, should be well attended. See advertisement.

[illegible] are at the telegraph office for R. [illegible] Shaw and J. W. Allen.

The steamer Sierra Nevada did not leave San Francisco for Portland yesterday, but will undoubtedly do so to-day.

[illegible].—Gov. Gibbs has appointed Wm. Vincent, of [illegible] City, Idaho, Commissioner of Deeds for Oregon.

[illegible] MEXICAN TRADE.—The steamer Pacific is now running [illegible] San Francisco and Mexican ports.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and corrective. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere, and HODGE & CALEF, mch20 97 Front St.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors that prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air,
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent
And if you'd be relieved of dread
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SURES ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work rooms and factories, and the baneful influences of sedentary employments it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs that rack and grind
The body and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills!
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, there is no great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From [illegible] shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone in regions new
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field
Who need against disease a shield,
To miners California bound
And tillers of wet, marshy ground
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle aged and old,
To those in health who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhoea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

THE ABOVE PREPARATION WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a Vegetable Extract.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretension to restoring the hair to bald heads; but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out, but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have a good suit of hair growing where we were entirely bald. Therefore as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard, and of consolation to bald heads, we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself, as may be desired.

The Old Wheel in the Mill

In th[illegible]
When the [illegible]
An[illegible]
On the river's tranquil breast,
O'er the crumbling bridge I wander,
Spanning [illegible] the limpid rill
An[illegible]
Of the old wheel in the mill.

Then I watch the water [illegible]
Swell strongly from the arch
Of the old mill quaint and mouldering,
Watch the waves in circles march
And the [illegible]
Of [illegible]
For the [illegible]
And the [illegible] away.

On that bridge I pause and wonder
How poor human nature fares
How it toils sublime in sorrow,
And what [illegible]
How it works and bravely suffers
With a never flagging will
Like the waves that gush and struggle
From the old arch of the mill

When the old mill wheel is silent
I am linked unto the scene;
Not a wrinkle stirs the water,
O'er whose breast night's jewels gleam
And the blue sky filled with beauty
On the rill a lustre throws
While the pale moon through the cloudlets
Opens softly as a rose

And those moments are the treasures
Given by the hand of Time,
Teaching us that, 'mid our troubles,
Pictures dawn of the sublime
And that life has woes and sorrows,
Only sent to fill the mind
With unworded love and tolerance
For the peace we sometimes find

REPORT OF THE TESTIMONY,

IN THE TRIAL OF THOMAS DONAHUE FOR THE MUDDER OF FERD J PATTERSON.

[From the Walla Walla Statesman.]

Tuesday, April 17th.—The jury was called and found to be present, when the evidence was introduced as follows:

TESTIMONY FOR THE PROSECUTION

S B Fargo, sworn —I reside in the county of Walla Walla. I know James F Patterson; know Thomas Donahue, the defendant. I was in the city on the 14th of February last, know of the killing of Mr Patterson on that day; I went into the saloon of Mr Barrett in this city, on the morning of that day between 7 and 8 o'clock, Mr. Donahue was there playing cards with the bar-keeper, Mr. Warren, at one of the tables. Mr Patterson came in while I was there and got the key of the privy and went out at the back door, he soon came back and sat down by the stove a little while, then went out of the front door. Donahue went out soon after, and then I went out and went into the barber shop. Patterson was sitting in a chair getting shaved, I picked up a small cup and went into the back room to get some warm water, and then I saw Donahue sitting down by the stove. I got the water, came out into the front room, washed and combed my hair; during that time I was talking with Patterson, and continued talking with him until I came out of the shop. At that time there were two negroes and Donahue in the back room, and Mr Patterson, Bogle and myself in the front room. Patterson said to me that he had quit drinking for a month, that when he got up that morning he had come to the conclusion not to drink any more for a month; I talked with him about one thing and another until I left the shop. I went from the shop back into Barrett's saloon, and was there but a short time when I heard a shot. I started for the door and almost in a second I heard another shot, and a third in quick succession, and a moment after I saw Mr. Patterson at the door of the saloon; the side of his face was next to me and was very bloody; he caught the knob of the door as he came up the street, and swung round; then the door opened and he fell inside. In a moment more Donahue came up to the door, with a pistol in his hand, he stuck his pistol in the door, saw Patterson and shot. I hallooed "Don't shoot!" We all got very much confused in the saloon, in getting out of the way; in a moment I heard another shot, almost as I said "Don't shoot!" I had retreated to the partition across the saloon when I heard the pistol snap, then Mr. Clark said, "Don't shoot any more, the man's dead;" then we all started to where Patterson lay. Donahue wheeled to go out, and then wheeled back and snapped his pistol at Patterson again, he then wheeled and went out of the door with his pistol in his hand. I started to go after him and have him arrested, but they crowded in so from the outside that I could not get out for some time, but finally I got out and followed Donahue up the street as far as Kyger's store, when Mr Kyger told me he was in there. I saw Mr. Miner, a policeman, coming, and he and I went in together. I saw Donahue in the back end of the store sitting down, and asked him if he wanted to give himself up; he said he did, and got up and came towards us. Dr. Tompkins, the Deputy Sheriff, came in at that time and took charge of him; I asked him to give up his pistol, and he said he would give it to the man he got it from; then I told him to give it to the man it belonged to, and he said it belonged to Mr. Sanford; that was not the pistol he did the shooting with. I think Dr. Tompkins took the pistol. I asked him where the pistol was he shot Patterson with, but he made no answer. I told Tompkins I wanted him to get it. Miner and I left Donahue in the hands of Tompkins, and went back to the saloon where Patterson was lying dead where he fell; he had received four wounds, one shot struck him on the right side of the jaw, and passed down through his neck and came out above his left breast, lodging in his shirt. The next shot went into his back and lodged on the right side in front; the other two shots were shot into the right side, one of them went clear through his body and struck his arm a little above the elbow, and passed nearly through his arm; the other came through in the skin on the opposite side (front) where it entered. I stayed in the saloon until after the coroner's inquest, and sent for Dr. Day to come and examine the wounds and cut out the balls; he cut out three balls. When the shooting commenced, Patterson was seated on the middle chair in the barber-shop, with his feet on top of the stool; he was getting shaved and was stripped to his pants and his shirt. I saw no arms about him. There is a door, or rather an arch between the back and front part of the barber shop. There was a stove in the back room, and Donahue was seated a little to the right of it. A person in the back room could plainly hear what was said in the other. When Patterson came to the door of the saloon, his shirt was all open in front so that his undershirt could be seen; he had on no vest and his pants were in his boots the same as mine. I was in the barber-shop several minutes; long enough to get warm water from the back room, wash myself and comb my hair. Donahue was there all the time I was; he was in the back room when I went in after the water and I left him there when I went out of the shop; when he fired the two shots in the room Mr. Patterson had fallen on his side; Donahue was at his side, that he could almost have touched him with the pistol. This affair took place in the City and County of Walla Walla. When Patterson came into the saloon in the morning Donahue was there playing cards with Mr. Warren, and when Patterson got the key to the privy he came close to Donahue in going out of the back door, and when he returned he passed close to Donahue again, for he was still sitting there. Patterson spoke to all hands about the morning, and after a little he went out by the front door; in a minute or two Warren and Donahue had some words over the game and he got up and went out, and into the barber-shop.

T. M. Wood, sworn —Was in this city on the 15th of February last. Knew Ferd. Patterson, as he was called, and also know the prisoner by sight. After I had got my breakfast on that morning, I went to the barber shop, between 8 and 9 o'clock, to get shaved. Patterson, and Bogle, the barber, were in the front room of the shop and one colored person and Mr. Donahue in the back room. Spoke to Patterson as I passed him, and said "good morning, Mr. Watchman," to Donahue. When I went into the back room, he said he had something the matter with his leg, but with that exception he was all right. I sat down by the stove and Donahue got up and passed behind me so as to come between me and Patterson; he had his face to Patterson and his back to me, and had his hand behind him and a pistol in his hand; he was about a pace from me. The pistol was cocked and Donahue had his hand on the hammer. I thought an arrest was going to be made and got up, thinking Patterson would shoot back, and I wanted to be prepared for any emergency. Just then Donahue presented the pistol at Patterson. I could just see a portion of his head from where I stood. I heard Donahue say "Patterson"—but could not hear the rest; then the pistol went off and I sprang to one side and did not see any more of the parties in the shop. I thought there were three shots fired in the shop and think I heard five all together. When Donahue got up I did not hear him speak; he went to within a pace of Patterson, between the first and second chairs, and stood there about half a minute before he spoke. He was at Patterson's side and partly behind him. When I first saw the pistol he held it in his right hand, behind him and partly under his coat. Did not notice position of Donahue's right hand when he went behind me. [Pistol shown to witness.] I think that is about the size of the pistol. [Witness shows jury the position of Donahue and the pistol.] I did not see any arms on Patterson. After the shooting, saw Patterson's coat and vest hanging in the barber shop; heard Patterson say "Oh my God!" Did not see anything offensive on Patterson's part before the shooting. Donahue could see Patterson from where he was sitting. I came out into the front room after they were gone and all was confusion; did not see Patterson again until the Coroner's jury. Patterson's right side was toward Donahue when the first shot was fired. Donahue stretched himself when he got up to fire and did not appear to be at all excited when he shot; saw no arms on him till he got up.

Cross Examination.—There was a partition in barber shop and a stove in back room. [Witness makes diagram of back room and explains position of Donahue, stove, negro, etc., to jury.] Don't think Patterson was asleep when I went into the shop. Thought there was going to be an arrest; thought Patterson would shoot back; thought so because it was necessary for Mr Donahue to use pistol in making arrest and because Patterson was a [illegible] man.

Chas. Quinn, colored, sworn —Know Donahue; know James F., commonly called Ferd Patterson by sight; saw Patterson killed; was in the barber shop of H. Bogle that morning, had been there half or three quarters of an hour when he was killed. When I went into the shop the barber was there; then Patterson came in; then the prisoner came in the back way and took a seat in the back room behind the stove. I bid him good morning and he said he was well; then Mr Fargo came in. Mr. Patterson was being shaved by Mr Bogle; during this time Wood came in and took a seat between Donahue and Patterson. I then took a seat between Wood and Patterson, near the door. No words passed; Donahue passed by me toward where Patterson was and stopped within two feet of him and waited until Bogle got [illegible] toward the left of Patterson, then Donahue stepped to the right side of Patterson and said, "Patterson, I will kill you or you will kill me," and shot at the same time. Then Patterson got up and said, "Oh God!" and ran to the door, opened it and ran up the street as far as Mr. Walsh's saloon, and fell in the saloon up against the counter all cramped up. Donahue continued to follow, snapping his pistol all the time. The first shot he received in his jaw, the next went through the window, and the next was at the door. Think he fired three shots in the house. Donahue made no remark when he went from back to [illegible]. I sat in back room quarter or half hour as long as it would take to shave a person. Patterson had coat and vest off; saw no arms about him, and none on Donahue till Wood called my attention to him. He was then standing up and holding the pistol cocked behind him. [Pistol shown to witness.] That is the same kind but cannot say it is the same one. I noticed the one he had was not a Colt's pistol. Donahue moved as carefully as a person could, had no idea he intended to murder any one. I followed right after Donahue and saw Patterson laying in Walsh's saloon all cramped up. I took hold of his legs and straightened them out. Donahue stood against the sill of the saloon door, and was snapping his pistol after the loads were all out. I was behind him then and he was standing there when I took hold of Patterson's legs.

Cross Examination.—Was in back room from the time Donahue came in until he went out of it. I saw him [illegible] he shot once [illegible] the door of the saloon; think he shot three [illegible] to the [illegible] of the shop.

Lorenzo Bogle, colored, sworn —Know Donahue, knew Mr Patterson. Am a barber; my shop is [illegible] Walsh's. On the 14th of February last, about 9 o'clock in the morning Patterson came into the shop to get shaved and in a few minutes after Donahue came in the back room and took a seat about 20 feet from where [illegible] was and sat there until I had done shaving him and he had sat up straight in the chair and I was dressing his hair. I had dressed the left part of his head and was [illegible] the right part, when Donahue [illegible] of Patterson, [illegible] the act of [illegible] Donahue walked [illegible] Patterson [illegible] "I'll kill you" [illegible] from the drawing. [illegible] Donahue shot again, and I think there was a third shot [illegible] shop. [illegible] when Patterson [illegible] was there in the back room. Donahue came in about 20 minutes after Patterson; saw Wood there that morning, Fargo came in [illegible] Wood. Donahue was sitting in back part of the shop [illegible] could see him plainly from where I was. [illegible] Patterson. Patterson was in his shirt sleeves, with his shirt open in front; he had no arms about him. When Donahue came in from the back room he was as cool as usual, he quietly came into the back room. There are three barber chairs in the front shop and Patterson sat on the middle one; Patterson [illegible] of the shop, Donahue went round behind the last chair and came up to Patterson from behind; I was [illegible] Patterson and Donahue and had altered my position [illegible] before he fired. I did not see any [illegible] of Patterson indicating hostile intent towards Donahue. The pistol was within half an inch of Patterson's jaw when it went off—the snap of the cap stung my hand.

Cross Examination.—Donahue frequently came into the back room; sometimes to get shaved, sometimes to get washed. He usually came in the morning, but sometimes in the evening. I saw him when he first came in and was going to ask him if he wanted to get shaved but was talking with Patterson and forgot it. [Witness makes diagram of shop and shows it to the jury, describing the position of furniture and person.] I am sure that Donahue fired two shots in the shop and think he fired three; saw Donahue when he got up and came towards Patterson; was looking at him all the time for I thought he was going to ask to be shaved. The chair in which Patterson sat is about three feet from the wall and he could see Donahue from that chair, and could see the stove too, though not plainly.

W. H. Barrett sworn.—Know Patterson, know Donahue. Know of the shooting that took place here on the 14th of February last. The first I know of it I heard the report of a pistol; was in a saloon at the time, and in a second or so Patterson came in and fell; Donahue came in immediately after and shot twice, and, I think, snapped his six-shooter twice, he then turned round and left. There were several there at the time—Fargo, Clark and others, and several that jumped over the fence in the back yard. Patterson was in the saloon in the morning before the shooting, he came in, got the privy key, went out the back door and soon came in the same way. Donahue was there at the time playing cards with Charley Warren in a corner near the partition. In getting the key, which is kept behind the door, Patterson must have passed within two feet of Donahue, and in coming in from the privy Donahue's face would be toward the one coming in. While Donahue was shooting in the saloon Clark said, "Don't shoot any more, the man's dead."

A. J. Miner sworn.—Am acquainted with Donahue, have known him three or four months. I was in the City of Walla Walla on the 14th of Feb. last. I did not get a pistol directly from Donahue on that day; he had a pistol but said he would give it to the man he got it from. This was in Kiger's store. Donahue did not say anything about another pistol. I got this pistol [showing another pistol] in a room back of the Postoffice, in which Mr Sanford slept, on the bed, it was freshly discharged; five loads out, one in, as it is now. I was Coroner at that time and held an inquest on the body of Patterson, I have four balls that were extracted from his body. [Balls produced by witness and shown to jury.] There were four wounds in him. [Witness describes the wounds in much the same manner as Fargo.] I found the body of Patterson at Barrett's saloon.

WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENSE.

J. H. Search sworn.—Was acquainted with Patterson by sight and reputation. On the 12th of Feb. last in the afternoon, I was walking down street with Van Wormington and when near Kiger's store I heard Patterson say, "I will kill a private watchman for he is a son of a b—" I did not communicate this to any one else.

M. V. D. Van Wormington sworn. "I knew Patterson by sight. Was in this town on the day before he was killed, heard him have a conversation in regard to a private watchman. I was going down street on the sidewalk near Hartman's hotel or Frank's store and heard Patterson and another man talking; Patterson said he would 'kill that son of a b— of a private watchman.' I have lived here for some time. Did not see Donahue before that time that day; I did not know of any other private watchman here at that time; knew Donahue was, for I had been paying him as such while I was doing business here; told Donahue that night at 8, 9 or 10 o'clock what Patterson had said. When I told Donahue he stood for a few minutes with his head dropped and then made some remarks as if he had apprehended some trouble from that quarter before. Donahue's character as a private watchman is good. Have only known him a few months; do not know much of his character for peace and quiet. He always conducted himself well while I knew him.

Cross Examination.—Was in business in town a little over two months, commenced business about last Sept., and closed about a month ago. Was near Frank's store when I heard Patterson's expression. It was late in the evening, but not dark. Don't know the man Patterson was talking to. It was after dinner. I generally take dinner about four or five o'clock; Search was with me; Saw Donahue that night between eight and twelve o'clock in front of Ryan's saloon and told him that I heard Patterson say, "I will kill that son of a b—h of a private watchman before I leave town." Went into the saloon with Donahue; Patterson was then either dancing or standing at the bar when I went out. Did not see Patterson or Donahue betting at any game that night. Mr. Laxater spoke to me some two or three weeks ago about my testimony in this case. I have heard that Dugan was the Attorney of Donahue but did not know it. Have not seen and conversed with Donahue since his arrest."

Messrs Piles, Sanford, Hathaway, Van Ostran and Kyger, were then called to testify as to the character of Donahue, and all testified as to his good character as a private watchman, and none of them had ever known him to have any trouble until the present. Mr. Van Ostran had known him since 1857; crossed the plains with him; knew him as a sergeant in the army at Fort Yuma, Cal., as watchman in Portland and this place, and always heard him well spoken of. The other witnesses had not known him for a great length of time, but always found him quiet and peaceable.

WITNESSES FOR TERRITORY.

Charles Warren, sworn.—Knew Patterson; know Donahue. Was with Patterson the night before he was killed, we went to Hartman's to supper together and I went down street again after supper with him; never heard him make any threats against Donahue or any private watchman. We parted on the street; he said he was going to buy a dress for Hartman's little girl.

Dr. Tompkins, sworn.—Knew Patterson, and know Donahue slightly; don't remember seeing them together on the night before the shooting. Was in Ball & Stone's saloon that night, saw both Patterson and Donahue there between 9 and 12 o'clock, but did not see them together.

Mr. Wiers, sworn.—Knew Patterson and Donahue, and saw them both in Green & Ryan's saloon on the night of the 14th of February last. They were playing at monte at the same table, was with Patterson all the time he was there, and then went over to the other saloon, where he danced; Donahue came over there, too.

Here the evidence for both parties closed. During the time it was being given, the point of giving evidence of Patterson's reputation was raised and argued at some length but such evidence was ruled out by the Court. The entire day had been consumed in getting the evidence before the jury and Court adjourned, the jury being permitted to separate as before.

Wednesday's Proceedings.—The day was consumed by the argument of counsel and charge of the Court. The argument was opened by prosecuting attorney Sharpe, who led off in a speech of an hour's length, and was followed by Messrs. Laxater and Langford for the prisoner—the former speaking two hours, and the latter a trifle more than an hour. Judge Mix closed the case for the Territory in an hour's argument.

Thursday April 19.—The jury came into Court, having been out from four o'clock p. m. yesterday, and informed his Honor that they could not agree, (standing seven for acquittal and five for conviction,) when they were discharged, and the prisoner returned to the charge of the Sheriff. He will probably not be tried again this term.

Letter from an Alabama Unionist.

Let all who cherish the expectation of whipping out Congress read the following letter from D. C. Humphreys, a distinguished Conservative of Alabama:

Washington, January 31, 1866.

To the Editor of the Huntsville Advocate: There is no more probability of the members from Alabama, of either House or Senate, getting a seat, either now or ever, than there is of their getting into the British Parliament. And I tell you that the feeling is growing stronger every day against the repeal of the act prescribing the oath. And as to the Alabama militia being armed, you may tell the truth, whether they fall out with me or not, that there is no such thing going to be done, unless the negro is counted and taken as a part of the militia. There is no use to mince this thing. The whole, entire legislation of the Alabama body now assembled at Montgomery, every word, every sentence, every paragraph, every syllable, every idea contained or incorporated in any of their foolish compilations—they are not to be dignified by the appellation of laws—making a discrimination against the negro as to civil rights, immunities and privileges, are declared to be dead, the putrid remains of the carcase of slavery, and to be buried out of sight by the agents and officers of the Federal United States Government. And to tell our people, also, that if they are living in the expectation or wish or desire or hope of getting rid—as they would express it—of Yankee or Federal influence, or of ever again having it in their power physically or politically, to discriminate by State or county or corporation rules against the negro they are expecting what they will never realize. And as to any war of the races that might be feared to take place in the cotton States there is not [illegible]. And the respect which the negro has always shown to and submitted to law will be a guarantee against any war on his part against Acts of Congress.

Not only are the views of the free soil, anti-slavery constitutional amendment's friends to be sustained by the great body of the people North, but when the anti-aristocratic feeling and principle which has always existed in the South [illegible] the negro question shall exhibit itself, and in its liberality shall embrace all the races, then right in the cotton States will those views be sustained too. A blustering against it won't win. Why what has been accomplished toward this end in the brief space of eight months. There is one thing about this matter—the men who are the loudest in the praise of the effort to uphold and establish the Confederacy, are being made the instruments of accomplishing the behests of the Government at Washington. See how gracefully they yielded to the order to adopt the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. It was always foolish to have opposed it. And you will see how gracefully the State officers will yield to the Acts of Congress throwing the protection of the power of the General Government around [illegible] the [illegible]. It is an idle speculation as to whether these bills will [illegible] Congress will pass or not for as sure as there is a test oath, or that the constitutional amendment was proposed by Congress so sure will these bills pass. In fact they are more certain to pass than was the amendment sure of ratification. The Congress is constitutionally bound to pass laws securing the freedom of everybody. And in the legal sense, as they judicially know that there is a race in the cotton or marginal States from which the Legislatures of those States are withholding proper protection, and have already assumed to pass laws—pretending to follow out the policy of the Administration, when the Administration itself was and is in favor of freedom and equality of rights before the law—discriminating most odiously against that race. Congress is bound to take charge of the question and see to it that all people of all races and color have a fair start in the journey of life.

The practical operation of the Acts of Congress will be to establish tribunals and forums, under Federal officers, to hear and determine every matter in which [illegible] negro or mulatto or persons [illegible] held as slaves or refugees shall or may be concerned. And [illegible] who undertakes to execute a State law making any discrimination between a white man and negro, shall be fined in a thousand dollars, and imprisonment twelve months, one or both.

And the Legislature may sit there for [illegible] and tax the people and eat out their substance in enacting [illegible] to evade or avoid the force and operation of these laws, and all that they do in that direction will be [illegible] a dead letter and only giving fresh evidence of their [illegible].

Yours, D. C. Humphreys.

"Important if True."—During the past three days, says the [illegible], we have heard mysterious hints of marvelous rich diggings having been struck at the head of the American river in the Sierra Nevada mountains. It is supposed that the spot has at last been found where a party of Frenchmen took out $100,000 each in 1852.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1866, by J. N. Dolph, Esq., District Attorney on behalf of the United States against "Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars," alleging in substance that on or about the 10th day of February, A. D. 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars aforesaid were sold and passed out of the hands of the manufacturer without having stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed that the boxes could not be opened without effacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided; and praying process against said Cigars, that the same may be declared forfeited and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday, the 7th day of May, A. D. 1866, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE
BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once reinforced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
ASTHMA, CROUP,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,

On that bridge I pause and wonder
How poor human nature lives,
How it toils amidst its sorrow,
And what [illegible] it gives
How it works and bravely suffers
With a never flagging will
Like the waves that gush and struggle
From the old arch of the mill.

When the old mill wheel is silent
I am linked unto the scene
Not a wrinkle scars the water,
O'er whose breast night's jewels gleam
And the blue sky filled with beauty,
On the rill a lustre throws
While the pale moon through the clouds
Opens softly as a rose

And these moments are the treasures

REPORT OF THE TESTIMONY,

IN THE TRIAL OF THOMAS DONAHUE FOR THE MURDER OF FERD J PATTERSON

[From the Walla Walla Statesman.]

TUESDAY, April 17th.—The jury was called and found to be present, whereupon the evidence was introduced as follows:

TESTIMONY FOR THE PROSECUTION

S. D. FARGO, sworn.—I reside in the county of Walla Walla. I knew James F Patterson; know Thomas Donahue, the defendant. I was in the city on the 14th of February last; know of the killing of Mr Patterson on that day. I went into the saloon of Mr Barrett in this city, on the morning of that day between 7 and 8 o'clock. Mr Donahue was there playing cards with the bar keeper, Mr. Warren, at one of the tables. Mr Patterson came in while I was there and got the key of the privy and went out at the back door, he soon came back and sat down by the stove a little while, then went out of the front door. Donahue went out soon after, and then I went out and went into the barber shop. Patterson was sitting in a chair getting shaved; I picked up a small cup and went into the back room to get some warm water, and then I saw Donahue sitting down by the stove. I got the water, came out into the front room, washed and combed my hair; during that time I was talking with Patterson, and continued talking with him until I came out of the shop. At that time there were two negroes and Donahue in the back room, and Mr Patterson, Bogle and myself in the front room. Patterson said to me that he had quit drinking for a month, that when he got up that morning he had come to the conclusion not to drink any more for a month. I talked with him about one thing and another until I left the shop. I went from the shop back into Barrett's saloon, and was there but a short time when I heard a shot. I started for the door and almost in a second I heard another shot, and a third in quick succession, and a moment after I saw Mr. Patterson at the door of the saloon; the side of his face was next to me and was very bloody; he caught the knob of the door as he came up the street, and swung round; then the door opened and he fell inside. In a moment more Donahue came up to the door with a pistol in his hand. He stuck his pistol in the door, saw Patterson and shot. I hallooed "Don't shoot!" We all got very much confused in the saloon, in getting out of the way; in a moment I heard another shot, almost as I said "Don't shoot!" I had retired to the partition across the saloon when I heard the pistol snap, then Mr. Clark said, "Don't shoot any more, the man's dead;" then we all started to where Patterson lay. Donahue wheeled to go out, and then wheeled back and [illegible] his pistol at Patterson again; he then wheeled and went out of the door with his pistol in his hand. I started to go after him and have him arrested, but they crowded in so from the outside that I could not get out for some time, but finally I got out and followed Donahue up the street as far as Kyger's store, when Mr Kyger told me he was in there. I saw Mr. Minor, a policeman, coming, and he and I went in together. I saw Donahue in the back end of the store sitting down, and asked him if he wanted to give himself up; he said he did, and got up and came towards us. Dr. Tompkins, the Deputy Sheriff, came in at that time and took charge of him. I asked him to give up his pistol, and he said he would give it to the man he got it from; then I told him to give it to the man it belonged to, and he said it belonged to Mr. Sanford; that was not the pistol he did the shooting with. I think "Doc Tompkins" took the pistol. I asked him where the pistol was he shot Patterson with, but he made no answer. I told Tompkins I wanted him to get it. Minor and I left Donahue in the hands of Tompkins, and went back to the saloon where Patterson was lying dead where he fell; he had received four wounds; one shot struck him on the right side of the jaw, and passed down through his neck and came out above his left breast, lodging in his shirt. The next shot went into his back and lodged on the right side in front. The other two shots were shot into the right side, one of them went clear through his body and struck his arm a little above the elbow, and passed nearly through his arm; the other one through the skin on the opposite side from where it entered. I stayed in the saloon until after the coroner's inquest, and sent for Dr. Day to come and examine the wounds; he cut out the balls, he cut out three balls. When the shooting commenced, Patterson was seated on the middle chair in the barber shop, with his feet on top of the stool; he was getting shaved and was stripped to his pants and his shirt; I saw no arms about him. There is a door or rather an arch between the back and front rooms of the barber shop. There was a stove in the back room, and Donahue was seated a little to the right of it. A person in one room could plainly hear what was said in the other. When Patterson came to the door of the saloon, his shirt was all open in front so that his undershirt could be seen; he had on no vest and his pants were in his boots the same as mine. I was in the barber shop several minutes; long enough to get warm water from the back room, wash myself and comb my hair. Donahue was there all the time I was there. He was in the back room when I went in after the water and I left him there when I went out of the shop. When he fired the two shots in the room Mr. Patterson had fallen out his side Donahue was so close that he could almost have touched him with the pistol. This affair took place in the City and County of Walla Walla. When Patterson came into the saloon in the morning Donahue was there playing cards with Mr. Warren, and when Patterson got the key to the privy he passed close to Donahue in going out at the back door; and when he returned he passed close to Donahue again, for he was still sitting there. Patterson spoke to all hands about the morning, and after a little he went out by the front door; in a minute or two Warren and Donahue had some words over the game and he got up and went out, and into the barber-shop.

T. M. WOOD sworn.—Was in this city on the 15th of February last. Knew Ferd. Patterson, as he was called and also know the prisoner by sight. After I had got my breakfast on that morning, I went to the barber shop, between 8 and 9 o'clock, to get shaved. Patterson, and Bogle, the barber, were in the front room of the shop and one colored person and Mr. Donahue in the back room. I spoke to Patterson as I passed him, and said "good morning, Mr. Watchman," to Donahue. When I went into the back room, he said he had something the matter with his leg, but with that exception he was all right. I sat down by the stove and Donahue got up and passed behind me so as to come between me and Patterson; he had his face to Patterson and his back to me, and had his hand behind him and a pistol in his hand; he was about a pace from me. The pistol was cocked and Donahue had his hand on the hammer. I thought an arrest was going to be made and got up, thinking Patterson would shoot back, and I wanted to be prepared for any emergency. Just then Donahue presented the pistol at Patterson. I could just see a portion of his head from where I stood. I heard Donahue say "Patterson"—but could not hear the rest; then the pistol went off and I sprung to one side and did not see any more of the parties in the shop. I thought there were three shots fired in the shop and think I heard five all together. When Donahue got up I did not hear him speak; he went to within a pace of Patterson, between the first and second chairs, and stood there about a minute before he spoke. He was at Patterson's side and partly behind him. When I first saw the pistol he held it in his right hand, behind him and partly under his coat. Did not notice position of Donahue's right hand when he went behind me. [Pistol shown to witness.] I think that is about the size of the pistol. [Witness shows jury the position of Donahue and the pistol.] I did not see any arms on Patterson. After the shooting, saw Patterson's coat and vest hanging in the barber shop; heard Patterson say "Oh, my God!", did not see anything offensive on Patterson's part before the shooting. Donahue could see Patterson from where he was sitting. I came out into the front room after they were gone and all was confusion; did not see Patterson again until the Coroner's Jury sat. Patterson's right side was toward Donahue when the first shot was fired. Donahue stretched himself when he got up to fire and did not appear to be at all excited when he shot; saw no arms on him till he got up.

Cross Examination.—There was a partition in barber-shop and a stove in back room. [Witness makes diagram of back room and explains position of Donahue, stove, negro, etc., to jury.] Don't think Patterson was asleep when I went into the shop. Thought there was going to be an arrest; thought Patterson would shoot back; thought so because it was necessary for Mr Donahue to use pistol in making arrest and because Patterson was a [illegible] man.

OSCAR QUINN, colored, sworn.—Know Donahue; knew James F., commonly called Ferd Patterson, by sight; saw Patterson killed; was in the barber shop of R Bogle that morning, had been there half or three quarters of an hour when he was killed. When I went into the shop the barber was there; then Patterson came in; then the prisoner came in the back way and took a seat in the back room behind the stove. I bid him good morning and he said he was well, then Mr. Fargo came in. Mr. Patterson was being shaved by Mr Bogle; during this time Wood came in and took a seat between Donahue and Patterson. I then took a seat between Wood and Patterson, near the door. No words passed; Donahue passed by me toward where Patterson was and stopped within two feet of him and waited until Bogle got mor[illegible] toward the left of Patterson; then Donahue stepped to the right side of Patterson and said "Patterson, I will kill you or you will kill me," and shot at the same time, then Patterson got up and said, "Oh God!" and ran to the door, opened it and ran up the street as far as Mr. Welch's saloon, and fell in the saloon up against the counter all cramped up. Donahue continued to follow, snapping his pistol all the time. The first shot he received in his jaw, the next went through the window, and the next was at the door. I think he fired three shots in the house. Donahue made no remark when he went from back to front room. I sat in back room quarter or half hour as long as it would take to shave a person. Patterson had coat and vest off, saw no arms about him, and none on Donahue till Wood called my attention to him—he was then standing up and holding the pistol cocked behind him. [Pistol shown to witness.] That is the same kind but cannot say it is the same one. I noticed the one he had was not a Colt's pistol. Donahue moved as carefully as a person could; had no idea he intended to murder any one. I followed right after Donahue and saw Patterson laying in Welch's saloon all cramped up. I took hold of his legs and straightened them out. Donahue stood against the sill of the saloon door, and was snapping his pistol after the loads were all out. I was behind him then and he was standing there when I took hold of Patterson's legs.

Cross Examination.—Was in back room from the time Donahue came in until he went out after Patterson. I saw him [illegible]

[illegible] one [illegible] once [illegible] the [illegible] the shop [illegible] think he [illegible] at the [illegible] saloon by the [illegible]

FRANKLIN BOGLE, colored, sworn.—Know Donahue; knew Mr Patterson. Am a barber; my shop is [illegible] below Dan Welch's. On the 15th February last, about 8 o'clock in the morning, Patterson came into the shop to get shaved, and a few minutes after Donahue [illegible] the back room and took a seat about 20 feet from where Patterson was and sat there until I had done shaving him and he had sat up straight in the chair, and I was brushing [illegible] the left part of his head, and was dressing the right part, when Donahue [illegible] at Patterson, who he stood [illegible] still [illegible] in the act [illegible] Donahue walked up [illegible] Patterson [illegible] kill you, [illegible] the hair saying, [illegible] out again, [illegible] there was a third shot in the shop. Patterson [illegible] and Donahue [illegible] when Patterson came in. Quinn was there in the back room. Donahue came in about 20 minutes after Patterson, saw Wood there that morning. I suppose [illegible] before Wood. Donahue was sitting in back part of the shop [illegible] I could see him plainly from where I was [illegible] Patterson; Patterson was in his shirt [illegible] with his shirt open in front; he had no arms [illegible] at him. When Donahue came in from the back room [illegible] as usual; he frequently came into the back room. There are three barber chairs in the front shop, and Patterson sat on the middle one, Patterson [illegible] the shop, Donahue went round behind the first chair and came up to Patterson from behind, I was between Patterson and Donahue and had altered my position a little before he fired. I did not see any [illegible] of Patterson indicating hostile intent towards Donahue. The pistol was within half an inch of Patterson's jaw when it went off, the snap of the cap stung my hand.

Cross Examination.—Donahue frequently came into the back door sometimes to get shaved, sometimes to get washed; he usually came in the morning but sometimes in the evening. I saw him when he first came in and was going to ask him if he wanted to get shaved, but was talking with Patterson and forgot it. [Witness makes diagram of shop and shows it to the jury, describing the position of furniture and persons.] I am sure that Donahue fired two shots in the shop and think he fired three; saw Donahue when he got up and came towards Patterson, was looking at him all the time for I thought he was going to ask to be shaved. The chair in which Patterson sat is about three feet from the wall and he could see Donahue from that chair, and could see the stove too, though not plainly.

W. H. BARRETT sworn.—Know Patterson, knew Donahue. Know of the shooting that took place here on the 15th of February last. The first I know of it I heard the report of a pistol; was in a saloon at the time, and in a second or so Patterson came in and fell; Donahue came in immediately after and shot twice, and, I think, snapped his six-shooter twice, he then turned round and left. There were several there at the time—Fargo, Clark and others, and several that jumped over the fence in the back yard. Patterson was in the saloon in the morning before the shooting; he came in, got the privy key, went out the back door and came in the same way. Donahue was there at the time playing cards with Charley Warren in a corner near the partition. In getting the key, which is kept behind the door, Patterson must have passed within two feet of Donahue; and in coming in from the privy Donahue's face would be toward the one coming in. While Donahue was shooting in the saloon Clark said, "Don't shoot any more, the man's dead."

A. J. MINER sworn.—Am acquainted with Donahue, have known him three or four months. I was in the City of Walla Walla on the 15th of Feb. last. I did not get a pistol directly from Donahue on that day; he had a pistol but said he would give it to the man he got it from. This was in Kiger's store. Donahue did not say anything about another pistol. I got this pistol [showing another pistol] in a room back of the Postoffice, in which Mr Sanford slept, on the bed, it was freshly discharged, five loads out, one in, as it is now. I was Coroner at that time and held an inquest on the body of Patterson. I have four balls that were extracted from his body. [Balls produced by witness and shown to jury.] There were four wounds on him. [Witness describes the wounds in much the same manner as Fargo.] I found the body of Patterson at Barrett's saloon.

WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENCE.

J. H. SEARCH sworn.—Was acquainted with Patterson by sight and reputation. On the 12th of Feb. last in the afternoon, I was walking down street with Van Wormington and when near Kiger's store I heard Patterson say, "I will kill a private watchman for he is a son of a b—" I did not communicate this to any one else.

M. V. B. VAN WORMINGTON sworn.—I know Patterson by sight. Was in this town on the day before he was killed, heard him have a conversation in regard to a private watchman. I was going down street on the sidewalk near Hartman's hotel or Frank's store and heard Patterson and another man talking; Patterson said he would "kill that son of a b— of a private watchman." I have lived here for some time. Did not see Donahue before that time that day; I did not know of any other private watchman here at that time; knew Donahue was for I had been paying him as such while I was doing business here. Told Donahue that night at 9 or 10 o'clock what Patterson had said. When I told Donahue he stood for a few minutes with his head dropped and then made some remarks as if he had apprehended some trouble from that quarter before. Donahue's character as a private watchman is good. Have only known him a few months, do not know much of his character for peace and quiet. He always conducted himself well while I knew him.

Cross Examination.—Was in business in town a little over two months, commenced business about last Sept., and closed about a month ago. Was near Frank's store when I heard Patterson's expression. It was late in the evening, but not dark. Don't know the man Patterson was talking to. It was after dinner. I generally take dinner about four or five o'clock; Search was with me; saw Donahue that night between eight and twelve o'clock in front of Ryan's saloon and told him that I heard Patterson say, "I will kill that son of a b—h of a private watchman before I leave town." Went into the saloon with Donahue; Patterson was then either dancing or standing at the bar when I went out. Did not see Patterson or Donahue betting at any game that night. Mr. Lasater spoke to me some two or three weeks ago about my testimony in this case. I have heard that Dugan was the Attorney of Donahue but did not know it. Have not seen and conversed with Donahue since his arrest.

Messrs Piles, Sanford, Hathaway, Van Osten and Kyger, were then called to testify as to the character of Donahue, and all testified as to his good character as a private watchman, and none of them had ever known him to have any trouble until the present. Mr Van Osten had known him since 1857; crossed the plains with him; knew him as a sergeant in the army at Fort Yuma, Cal., as watchman in Portland and this place, and always heard him well spoken of. The other witnesses had not known him for a great length of time, but always found him quiet and peaceable.

WITNESSES FOR TERRITORY.

CHARLES WARREN, sworn.—Know Patterson; know Donahue. Was with Patterson the night before he was killed; we went to Hartman's to supper together and I went down street again after supper with him; never heard him make any threats against Donahue or any private watchman. We parted on the street; he said he was going to buy a dress for Hartman's little girl.

DR. TOMPKINS, sworn.—Know Patterson, and know Donahue slightly; dont remember seeing them together on the night before the shooting. Was in Ball & Stone's saloon that night; saw both Patterson and Donahue there, between 9 and 12 o'clock, but did not see them together.

MR. WHITE, sworn.—Know Patterson and Donahue, and saw them both in Green & Ryan's saloon on the night of the 14th of February last. They were playing at monte at the same table, was with Patterson all the time he was there, and then went over to the other saloon, where he danced; Donahue came over there, too.

Here the evidence for both parties closed. During the time it was being given, the point of giving evidence of Patterson's reputation was raised and argued at some length, but much evidence was ruled out by the Court. The entire day had been consumed in getting the evidence before the jury and Court adjourned, the jury being permitted to separate as before.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.—The day was consumed by the argument of counsel and charge of the Court. The argument was opened by prosecuting attorney Fargo, who led off in a speech of an hour's length, and was followed by Messrs. Lasater and Langford for the prisoner—the former speaking two hours, and the latter a trifle more than an hour. Judge Mix closed the case for the Territory in an hour's argument.

THURSDAY, April 19.—The jury came into Court, having been out from four o'clock P. M. yesterday, and informed his Honor that they could not agree, (standing seven for acquittal and five for conviction,) when they were discharged, and the prisoner returned to the charge of the Sheriff. He will probably not be tried again this term.

Letter from an Alabama Unionist.

Let all who cherish the expectation of whipping out Congress read the following letter from D. C. Humphreys, a distinguished conservative of Alabama:

WASHINGTON, January 31, 1866.

To the Editor of the Huntsville Advocate. There is no more probability of the members from Alabama, of either House or Senate, getting a seat, either now or ever, than there is of their getting into the British Parliament. And I tell you that the feeling is growing stronger every day against the repeal of the act prescribing the oath. And as to the Alabama militia being armed, you may tell the truth, whether they fall out with me or not, that there is no such thing going to be done unless the negro is counted and taken as a part of the militia. There is no use to mince this thing. The whole, entire legislation of the Alabama body now assembled at Montgomery—every word, every sentence, every paragraph, every syllable, every idea embodied, contained or incorporated in any of their foolish compilations—they are not to be dignified by the appellation of laws—making a discrimination against the negro as to civil rights, immunities and privileges, are declared to be dead, the putrid remains of the corpse of slavery, and to be buried out of sight by the agents and officers of the Federal United States Government. And to tell our people, also, that if they are living in the expectation or wish or desire, or hope of getting rid—as they would express it—of Yankee or Federal influence, or if ever again having it in their power, physically or politically, to discriminate by State or county or corporation rules against the negro, they are expecting what they will never realize. And as to any war of the races that might be feared to take place in the cotton States, there are not white people enough to make any war. And the respect which the negro has always shown to submit to law will be a sure guarantee against any war on his part against Acts of Congress.

Not only are the views of the free soil, anti-slavery constitutional amendment's friends to be sustained by the great body of the people North, but when the anti-aristocratic feeling and principle which has always existed in the South save on the negro question shall exhibit itself, and in its liberality shall embrace all the races, then right in the cotton States will these views be sustained, too. A ministerial, against it won't win. Why what has been accomplished toward this end in the brief space of eight [illegible] There is no other thing about this matter—the men who are the loudest in the praises of the effort to uphold and establish the Confederacy are being made the instruments of accomplishing the behests of the Government at Washington. See how gracefully they yielded to the order to adopt the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. It was almost as foolish to have opposed it. And you will see how gracefully the State officers will yield to the Acts of Congress throwing the protection of the power of the General Government around and about the freedmen. It is idle speculation as to whether these bills now before Congress will pass or not. For as sure as there is a test oath, or that the constitutional amendment was proposed by Congress so sure will these bills pass. In fact, they are almost as certain to pass as was the the amendment sure of ratification. For Congress is constitutionally bound to pass laws securing the freedom of everybody. And in the legal sense, as they judicially know that there is a race in the cotton or insurgent States from which the Legislatures of those States are withholding proper protection and have already assumed to pass laws—pretending to follow out the policy of the Administration, when the Administration itself was and is in favor of freedom and equality of rights before the law—discriminating most odiously against that race. Congress is bound to take charge of the question and see to it that all people of all races and color have a fair start in the journey of life.

The practical operation of the Acts of Congress will be to establish tribunals and forums, under Federal authority, [illegible] to determine every matter in which the [illegible] free negro or mulatto or person [illegible] in slavery or refugees shall [illegible] And any person who undertakes to execute a State law, making a discrimination between a white man and a negro, shall be fined [illegible] a thousand dollars, and imprisonment [illegible] months, one or both.

And the Legislature may sit there for six months, and tax the people and eat out their substance in endeavoring to evade or avoid the force and operation of these laws, and all that they do in that direction will be so much waste [illegible] but only giving fresh evidence of [illegible]

Yours, D. C. HUMPHREYS.

"IMPORTANT IF TRUE"—During the last three days says the [illegible] we have heard mysterious hints of marvelously rich diggings having been struck at the head of the American river, in the Sierra Nevada mountains. It is supposed that the spot has at last been found where a party of Frenchmen took out $100,000 each in 1852.

DR. J. PERRAULT'S FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE,

FOR THE

CURE OF SPECIAL DISEASES,

ARMORY HALL BUILDING,

Northeast Corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets,

ENTRANCE ON EITHER MONTGOMERY OR SACRAMENTO STREET.

DR. PERRAULT CONTINUES TO TREAT PRIVATE AND CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, SCROFULA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, SPERMATORRHŒA, IMPOTENCE, STERILITY.

DR. PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory and Vigor, etc., resulting from injurious habits, contracted in youth, or [illegible] maturity, which produce constitutional debility and premature decline.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and improper use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Diabetes of the Bladder, Gravel, Spermatorrhœa, and Impotence will be cured in a few days, without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the Womb, Suppression of the Menses, or Profuse Flowing, Costiveness, Piles, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Side, Headache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR. PERRAULT, (corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.)

To those seeking our advice a plain statement of their case will be given, whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. No poisons or harsh medicines to injure the constitution; no making sick to make well; honest in our dealings; frank in our opinions; moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried this Doctor, and that scientific Physician, boasted and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing, as consultations are free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed, J. PERRAULT, M. D., corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, Post Office, San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. BIOT'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their immense sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. ap24d3m

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1866, by J. [illegible], Esq., District Attorney on Behalf of the United States against "Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars," alleging in substance that on or about the 10th day of February, A. D. 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars aforesaid were sold and passed out of the hands of the manufacturer without having the stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed that the boxes could not be opened without effacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided; and praying process against said Cigars, that the same may be declared forfeited, and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court, to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty-two boxes of Cigars, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday, the 7th day of May, A. D. 1866, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relieved, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It is an expectorant, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per Bottle.

Prices Greatly Reduced!
Prices Greatly Reduced!

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the City of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is specially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 80 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

The Old Wheel in the Mill.

In the silence of the evening,
When the sun has gone to rest,
And left its roseat glory
On the river's tranquil breast,
O'er the crumbling bridge I wander,
Spanning low the limpid rill,
And listen to the turning
Of the old wheel in the mill.

Then I watch the water bubble,
See it struggle from the arch
Of the old mill quaint and mouldering;
Watch the waves in circles march.
And these waves seem but the symbols
Of man's labors day by day;
For their power is lost so quickly,
And they pass as soon away.

On that bridge I pause and wonder
How poor human nature fares;
How it tells sublime in sorrow,
And what noble deeds it dares.
How it works and bravely suffers
With a [illegible] flagging will,
Like the waves that gush and struggle
From the old arch of the mill.

When the old mill-wheel is silent
I am linked unto the scene;
Not a wrinkle scars the water,
O'er whose breast night's jewels gleam.
And the blue sky, filled with beauty,
On the rill a lustre throws,
While the pale moon through the cloudlets
Opens softly as a rose.

And those moments are the treasures
Given by the hand of Time,
Teaching us that, [illegible] troubles,
Pictures dawn of the sublime,
And that life has woes and sorrows,
Only sent to fill the mind
With unwrinkled love and reverence
For the peace we sometimes find.

REPORT OF THE TESTIMONY,

IN THE TRIAL OF THOMAS DONAHUE FOR THE MURDER OF FERD. J. PATTERSON.

[From the Walla Walla Statesman.]

Tuesday, April 17.—The jury was called and found to be [illegible] the evidence was introduced as follows:

TESTIMONY FOR THE PROSECUTION.

S. B. Fargo, sworn.—I reside in the county of Walla Walla. I know James F. Patterson; know Thomas Donahue, the defendant. I was in this city on the 15th of February last; know of the killing of Mr. Patterson on that day. [illegible] went into the saloon of Mr. Barrett in this city, on the morning of that day, between 7 and 8 o'clock. Mr. Donahue was there playing cards with the bar-keeper, Mr. Warren, at one of the tables. Mr. Patterson came in while I was there and got the key of the privy and went out at the back door; he soon came back and sat down by the stove a little while, then went out of the front door. Donahue went out soon after, and then I went out and went into the barber shop. Patterson was sitting in a chair getting shaved; I picked up a small cup and went into the back room to get some warm water, and then I saw Donahue sitting down by the stove. I got the water, came out into the front room, washed and combed my hair; during that time I was talking with Patterson, and continued talking with him until I came out of the shop. At that time there were two negroes and Donahue in the back room, and Mr. Patterson, Bogle and myself in the front room. Patterson said to me that he had quit drinking for a month, that when he got up that morning he had come to the conclusion not to drink any more for a month; I talked with him about one thing and another until I left the shop. I went from the shop back into Barrett's saloon, and was there but a short time when I heard a shot. I started for the door and almost in a second I heard another shot, and a third in quick succession, and a moment after I saw Mr. Patterson at the door of the saloon; the side of his face was next to me and was very bloody; he caught the knob of the door as he came up the street, and swung round; then the door opened and he fell inside. In a moment more Donahue came up to the door with a pistol in his hand; he stuck his pistol in the door, saw Patterson and shot. I hallooed "Don't shoot!" We all got very much confused in the saloon, in getting out of the way; in a moment I heard another shot, almost as I said "Don't shoot!" I had rushed to the partition across the saloon when I heard the pistol snap, then Mr. Clark said, "Don't shoot any more; the man's dead." Then we all started to where Patterson lay. Donahue wheeled to go out, and then wheeled back and [illegible] his pistol at Patterson again; he then wheeled as I went out of the door with his pistol in his hand; I started to go after him and have him arrested, but they crowded in so from the outside that I could not get out for some time, but finally I got out and followed Donahue up the street as far as Kyger's store; when Mr. Kyger told me he was in there. I saw Mr. Miner, a policeman, coming, and he and I went in together. I saw Donahue in the back end of the store sitting down, and asked him if he wanted to give himself up; he said he did, and got up and came towards us. Dr. Tompkins, the Deputy Sheriff, came in at that time and took charge of him. I asked him to give up his pistol, and he said he would give it to the man he got it from; then I told him to give it to the man it belonged to and he said it belonged to Mr. Sanford; that was not the pistol he did the shooting with. I think that Dr. T[illegible] took the pistol. I asked him where the pistol was he shot Patterson with, but he made [illegible] I said [illegible] I wanted him to get it. Miner and I left Donahue in the hands of Tompkins, and went back to the saloon where Patterson was lying dead where he fell; he had received four wounds; one shot [illegible] him on the right side of the jaw, and passed down through his neck and came out above his left breast, lodging in his shirt. The next shot went into his back and lodged on the right side in front. [illegible] other two shots were shot into the right side, one of them went clear through his body and struck his arm, a little above the elbow, and passed nearly through his arm, the other came [illegible] in the arm on the opposite side from where it entered. I stayed in the saloon until after the coroner's inquest, and sent for Dr. Day to come and examine the [illegible] cut out the balls; he cut out three balls. [illegible] Patterson was seated on the [illegible] in the barber shop, with his feet on top of the [illegible] was being shaved and [illegible] his pants [illegible] I saw no arms on him. There [illegible] back [illegible] the back [illegible] was a [illegible] I waited a [illegible] Patterson [illegible] all open, [illegible] he had on his [illegible] his pants were in his boots the same as mine. [illegible] enough to [illegible] the back room with myself and [illegible] I was [illegible] in the back room when I [illegible] after the water and I left him there when I [illegible] shop? when he fired the two shots in [illegible] Mr. Patterson had fallen on his side [illegible] he could almost have [illegible] him with the pistol. This affair took place in the City and County of Walla Walla. When [illegible] came into the saloon in the morning Donahue was there playing cards with Mr. Warren, and when Patterson got the key to the privy he [illegible] close to Donahue in going out of the back door, and when he returned he [illegible] close to Donahue again, for he was still sitting there. Patterson spoke to all hands about, the morning, and after a little he went out by the front door, in a minute or two Warren and Donahue had some words over the game and he got up and went out, and into the barber-shop.

T. M. Wood [illegible] was in this city on the 15th of February last. Knew Ferd. Patterson, as he was called, and also knew the prisoner by sight. After I had got my breakfast on that morning, I went to the barber shop, between 8 and 9 o'clock, to get shaved. Patterson and Bogle, the barber, were in the front room of the shop and one colored person and Mr. Donahue in the back room. Spoke to Patterson as I passed him, and said "good morning, Mr. Watchman," to Donahue. When I went into the back room, he said he had something the matter with his leg, but with that exception he was all right. I sat down by the stove and Donahue got up and passed behind me so as to come between me and Patterson; he had his face to Patterson and his back to me, and had his hand [illegible] and a pistol in his hands; he was about a pace from me. The pistol was cocked and Donahue had his hand on the hammer. I thought an arrest was going to be made and got up, thinking Patterson would shoot back, and I wanted to be prepared for any emergency. Just then Donahue presented the pistol at Patterson; I could just see a portion of his head, from where I stood. I heard Donahue say "Patterson"—but could not hear the rest; then the pistol went off and I sprang to one side and did not see any more of the parties in the shop. I thought there were three shots fired in the shop and think I heard five all together. When Donahue got up I did not hear him speak; he went to within a pace of Patterson, between the first and second chairs, and stood [illegible] minute before he spoke. He was at Patterson's side and partly behind him. When I first saw the pistol he held it in his right hand, behind him and partly under his coat. Did not notice position of Donahue's right hand when he went behind me. [Pistol shown to witness.] I think that is about the size of the pistol. [Witness shows jury the position of Donahue and the pistol.] I did not see any arms on Patterson. After the shooting, saw Patterson's coat and vest hanging in the barber shop; heard Patterson say "Oh my God!" Did not see anything offensive on Patterson's part before the shooting. Donahue could see Patterson from where he was sitting. I came out into the front room after they were gone; all was confusion; did not see Patterson again until the Coroner's jury. Patterson's right side was toward Donahue when the first shot was fired. Donahue stretched himself when he got up to fire, and did not [illegible] to be at all excited when he shot; saw no arms on him till he got up.

Cross Examination.—[illegible] a partition in barber-shop and a stove in back room. [Witness makes diagram of back room and [illegible] position of chairs, stove, negro, etc., to jury.] Don't think Patterson was asleep when I went into the shop. Thought there was going to be an arrest; thought Patterson would shoot back; thought so because it was necessary for Mr. Donahue to use pistol in making arrest and because Patterson was a [illegible] to them.

Dan. Bogle, colored, sworn.—Saw Donahue; know James F., commonly called Ferd. Patterson, by sight; saw Patterson killed; was in the barber shop of R. Bogle that morning; had been there half or three quarters of an hour when he was killed. When I went into the shop the barber was there; then Patterson came in; then the prisoner came in the back way and took a seat in the back room behind the stove. I bid him good morning and he said he was well; then Mr. Fargo came in. Mr. Patt[illegible] during this time Wood came in and took a seat between Donahue and Patt[illegible]. I then took a seat between Wood and Patterson, near the door. No words passed; Donahue passed by me toward where Patterson was and stopped within two feet [illegible] toward the left of Patterson; then Donahue stepped to the right side of Patterson and said, "Patterson, I will kill you or you will kill me," and shot at the same time; then Patterson jumped up and [illegible] "Oh God!" and ran to the door, opened it and ran up the street as far as Mr. Welch's saloon, and fell in the saloon up against the counter all cramped up. Donahue [illegible] snapping his pistol all the time. The first shot he received in his jaw, the next went through the window, and the next was at the door; think he fired three shots in the house. Donahue made no remark when he went from back to front room; he sat in back room quarter or half hour, as long as it would take to shave a person. Patterson had coat and vest off; saw no arms about him, and none on Donahue. [illegible] Wood called my attention to him; he was then standing up and holding the pistol cocked behind him. [Pistol shown to witness.] That is the same kind but cannot say it is the same one; [illegible] the one he had was not a Colt's pistol. Donahue acted as carefully as a person could; had no idea he intended to murder any one. I followed right after Donahue and saw Patterson laying in Welch's [illegible] all cramped up; I took hold of his legs and straightened them out. Donahue stood against the sill of the saloon door, and was snapping his pistol after the body was all out. I was behind him then, and he was standing there when I took hold of Patterson's legs.

Cross Examination.—Was in back room from time Donahue came in until he went out after Patterson; I saw him cock his pistol once [illegible]; he shot once between the door of the shop and the door of the saloon; think he shot three times inside; he was up to the door of the saloon by the time I got out of the shop.

Richard Bogle, colored, sworn.—Know Donahue; know Mr. Patterson. Am a barber; my shop is one door below Dan. Welch's. On the 15th of February last, about 9 o'clock in the morning, Patterson came into the shop to get shaved, and a few minutes after Donahue came into the back room and took a seat about 20 feet from where Patterson was, and sat there until I had done shaving him, and he had sat up straight in the chair, and I was dressing his hair; I had dressed the left part of his head, and was dressing the right part, when Donahue advanced to within four feet of Patterson, where he stood about 20 seconds perfectly still, and as I was in the act of taking the towel from Patterson's head, Donahue walked up and said: "Patterson, you kill me, or I'll kill you," and shot at once. Patterson leaped from the chair saying, "Oh; I'm shot!" and ran to the door. Donahue shot again, and I think there was a third shot in the shop. Patterson went out of the shop door and Donahue followed; when Patterson came in Quinn was there in the back room. Donahue came in about 20 minutes after Patterson; saw Wood there that morning; Fargo came in before Wood; Donahue was sitting in back part of the shop, his face towards me; could see him plainly from where I was; he could also see Patterson; Patterson was in his shirt sleeves, with his shirt open in front; he had no arms about him. When Donahue came in from the back room he was as cool as usual; he frequently came into the back room. There are three barber chairs in the front shop, and Patterson sat on the middle one; Patterson faced crosswise of the shop; Donahue went round behind the first chair and came up to Patterson from behind; I was then between Patterson and Donahue and had altered my position a little before he fired. I did not see any motion of Patterson indicating hostile intent towards Donahue. The pistol was within half an inch of Patterson's jaw when it went off; the snap of the cap stung my hand.

Cross Examination.—Donahue frequently came into the back door, sometimes to get shaved, sometimes to get washed; he usually came in the morning, but sometimes in the evening. I saw him when he first came in and was going to ask him if he wanted to get shaved, but was talking with Patterson and forgot it. [Witness makes diagram of shop and shows it to the jury, describing the position of furniture and persons.] I am sure that Donahue fired two shots in the shop and think he fired three; saw Donahue when he got up and came towards Patterson; was looking at him all the time for I thought he was going to ask to be shaved. The chair in which Patterson sat is about three feet from the wall and he could see Donahue from that chair, and could see the stove too, though not plainly.

W. H. Barrett sworn.—Know Patterson; know Donahue. Know of the shooting that took place here on the 15th of February last. The first I knew of it I heard the report of a pistol; was in a saloon at the time, and in a second or so Patterson came in and fell; Donahue came in immediately after and shot twice, and I think snapped his six-shooter twice; he then turned round and left. There were several there at the time—Fargo, Clark and others, and several that jumped over the fence in the back yard. Patterson was in the saloon in the morning before the shooting; he came in, got the privy key, went out the back door and soon came in the same way. Donahue was there at the time playing cards with Charley Warren in a corner near the partition. In getting the key, which is kept behind the door, Patterson must have passed within two feet of Donahue, and in coming in from the privy Donahue's face would be toward the one coming in. While Donahue was shooting in the saloon Clark said, "Don't shoot any more, the man's dead."

A. J. Kyger sworn.—Am acquainted with Donahue; have known him three or four months. I was in the City of Walla Walla on the 15th of Feb. last. I did not get a pistol directly from Donahue on that day; he had a pistol but said he would give it to the man he got it from. This was in Kiger's store. Donahue did not say anything about another pistol. I got this pistol [showing another pistol] in a room back of the Post-office, in which Mr. Sanford slept, on the bed, as it is now, freshly discharged; five loads out, one in, as it is now. I was Coroner at that time and held an inquest on the body of Patterson. I have four balls that were extracted from his body. [Balls produced by witness and shown to jury.] There were four wounds on him. [Witness describes the wounds in much the same manner as Fargo.] I found the body of Patterson at Barrett's saloon.

WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENSE.

J. H. Seaton sworn.—Was acquainted with Patterson by sight and reputation. On the 13th of Feb. last in the afternoon, I was walking down street with Van Wormington and when near Kiger's store I heard Patterson say, "will kill a private watchman for he is a son of a b—." I did not communicate this to any one else.

M. V. B. Van Wormington sworn.—I know Patterson by sight. Was in this town on the day before he was killed; heard him have a conversation in regard to a private watchman; I was going down street to the [illegible] near Hartman's hotel or Frank's store and heard Patterson and another man talking; Patterson said he would "kill that son of a b— of a private watchman." I have lived here for some time. Did not see Donahue before that time that day; I did not know of any other private watchman here at that time; knew Donahue was, for I had been paying him as such while I was doing business here; told Donahue that night at 8, 9 or 10 o'clock what Patterson had said. When I told Donahue he stood for a few minutes with his head dropped, and then made some remarks as if he had apprehended some trouble from that quarter before. Donahue's character as a private watchman is good. Have only known him a few months; do not know much of his character for peace and quiet. He always conducted himself well while I knew him.

Cross Examination.—Was in business in town a little over two months, commenced business about last Sept., and closed about a month ago. Was near Frank's store when I heard Patterson's expression. It was late in the evening, but not dark. Don't know the man Patterson was talking to. It was after dinner. I generally take dinner about four or five o'clock. Seaber was with me. Saw Donahue that night between eight and twelve o'clock in front of Ryan's saloon and told him that I heard Patterson say, "I will kill that son of a b—h of a private watchman before I leave town." Went into the saloon with Donahue; Patterson was then either dancing or standing at the bar when I went out. Did not see Patterson or Donahue betting at any game that night. Mr. Lester spoke to me some two or three weeks ago about my testimony in this case. I have heard that Dugan was the Attorney of Donahue but did not know it. Have not seen and conversed with Donahue since his arrest.

Messrs. Fike, Sanford, Hathaway, Van Osten and Kyger, were then called to testify as to the character of Donahue, and all testified as to his good character as a private watchman, and none of them had ever known him to have any trouble until the present. Mr. Van Osten had known him since 1857; crossed the plains with him; knew him as a sergeant in the army at Fort Yuma, Cal.; as watchman in Portland and this place, and always heard him well spoken of. The other witnesses had not known him for a great length of time, but always found him quiet and peaceable.

WITNESSES FOR REBUTTAL.

Charles Warner sworn.—Knew Patterson; knew Donahue. Was with Patterson the night before he was killed; we went to Hartman's to supper together and I went down street again after supper with him; never heard him make any threats against Donahue or any private watchman. We parted on the street; he said he was going to buy a dress for Hartman's little girl.

Dr. Tompkins sworn.—Knew Patterson and know Donahue slightly; don't remember seeing them together on the night before the shooting. Was in Ball & Stelle's saloon that night; saw both Patterson and Donahue there between 9 and 12 o'clock, but did not see them together.

Mr. White sworn.—Knew Patterson and Donahue, and saw them both in Green & Ryan's saloon on the night of the 14th of February last. They were playing at monte at the same table; was with Patterson all the time he was there, and then went over to the other saloon where he danced; Donahue came over there, too.

Here the evidence for both parties closed. During the time it was being given, the point of giving evidence of Patterson's reputation was raised and argued at some length, but such evidence was ruled out by the Court. The entire day had been consumed in getting the evidence before the jury and Court adjourned, the jury being permitted to separate as before.

Wednesday's Proceedings.—The day was consumed by the argument of counsel and charge of the Court. The argument was opened by prosecuting attorney Fargo, who led off in a speech of an hour's length, and was followed by Messrs. Lester and Langford for the prisoner—the former speaking two hours, and the latter a trifle more than an hour. Judge Mix closed the case for the Territory in an hour's argument.

Thursday, April 19.—The jury came into Court, having been out from four o'clock P. M. yesterday, and informed his Honor that they could not agree, (standing seven for acquittal and five for conviction;) when they were discharged, and the prisoner returned to the charge of the Sheriff. He will probably not be tried again this term.

Letter from an Alabama [illegible]

[illegible] who [illegible] the [illegible] out Congress read the following letter from B. G. Humphreys, a distinguished conservative of Alabama:

WASHINGTON, January 31, 1866.

To the Editor of the Huntsville Advocate: There is no more probability of the members from Alabama, of either House or Senate, getting a seat, either now or ever, than there is of their getting into the British Parliament. And I tell you that the feeling is growing stronger every day against the repeal of the act proscribing the oath. And as to the Alabama militia being armed, you may tell the truth, whether they fall out with me, or not, that there is no such thing going to be done, unless the negro is counted and taken as a part of the militia. There is no use to induce this thing. The whole, entire legislation of the Alabama body now assembled at Montgomery, every word, every sentence, every paragraph, every syllable, every idea, embodied, contained or incorporated in any of their foolish compilations—they are not to be dignified by the appellation of laws—making a discrimination against the negro as to civil rights, immunities and privileges, are destined to be dead, the putrid remains of the corpse of slavery, and to be buried out of sight by the agents and officers of the Federal United States Government. And to tell our people, also, that if they are living in the expectation, or wish, or desire, or hope of getting rid—as they would express it—of Yankee or Federal influence, by or ever again having it in their power, physically or politically, to discriminate by State or county or corporation rules against the negro, they are expecting what they will never realize. And as to any war of the races that might be feared to take place in the cotton States, there are not white people enough to make any war, and the respect which the negro has always shown to submit to law, will be a sure guarantee against any war on his part against Acts of Congress.

Not only are the views of the free soil, anti-slavery constitutional amendment's friends to be sustained by the great body of the people North, but when the anti-aristocratic feeling and principle which has always existed in the South, save on the negro question, shall exhibit itself, and in its liberality shall embrace all the races, then right in the cotton States will these views be sustained, too. A blustering against it won't win. Why, what has been accomplished toward this end in the brief space of eight months? There is another thing about this matter—the men who are the loudest in the praise of the effort to uphold and establish the Confederacy, are being made the instruments of accomplishing the behests of the Government at Washington. See how gracefully they yielded to the order to adopt the constitutional amendment, abolishing slavery. It was always foolish to have opposed it. And you will see how gracefully the State officers will yield to the Acts of Congress, throwing the protection of the power of the General Government around and about the freedmen. It is no idle speculation as to whether these bills now before Congress will pass or not, for so sure as there is a test oath, or that the constitutional amendment was proposed by Congress, so sure will these bills pass. In fact, they are more certain to pass than was the amendment sure of ratification. For Congress is constitutionally bound to pass laws securing the freedom of everybody. And in the legal sense, as they judicially know that there is a race in the cotton or in other States from which the Legislatures of these States are withholding proper protection, and have already assumed to pass laws pretending to follow out the policy of the Administration, which the Administration itself is against in favor of freedom and equality of rights before the law—discriminating most odiously against that race. Congress is bound to take charge of the question and see to it that all people of all races and color have a fair start in the journey of life.

The practical operation of the Acts of Congress will be to establish tribunals and forums, under Federal [illegible], to hear and determine every matter to which a freedman, free negro or mulatto or person ever held in slavery, or refugees, shall or may be concerned. And any person who undertakes to execute a State law, making any discrimination between a white man and negroes, shall be fined in a thousand dollars and imprisonment twelve months, one or both.

And the Legislature may sit there for six months, and tax the people and eat out their substance in endeavoring to avoid the force and operation of these laws, and all that they do in that direction will be as a dead letter, and only giving fresh evidence of a rebellious spirit. Yours, [illegible] B. G. HUMPHREYS.

"IMPORTANT IF TRUE."—During the past three days, says the Territorial Enterprise, we have heard mysterious hints of marvelously rich diggings having been struck at the head of the American river, in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. It is supposed that the spot has at last been found where a party of Frenchmen took out $100,000 each in 1852.

Oregon City Paper Manufacturing Co.

THE STOCKHOLDERS OF SAID COMPANY ARE hereby notified that at a meeting of the Directors of said Company held on the 21st inst., at their office in Oregon City, an assessment of 50 per cent. was levied on the capital stock of said Company, payable to the Secretary of said Company, in United States gold or silver coin on or before the 1st day of May next, at the store of Wortman & Sheppard, in Oregon City.

ap23td JAMES D. MILLER, Secretary.

To Builders and Contractors.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT PROPOSALS will be received by the OREGON CITY PAPER MANUFACTURING COMPANY up to 10 o'clock A. M. on the 10th day of May, A. D. 1866, for the erection of a three-story building in Oregon City, for the use of said Company. The said building to be 30 by 60 feet, the first story to be built of stone, the two upper stories of brick. The stone work to be finished by the first of July next, the brick work to be finished on or before the first of August next, and the entire building to be finished by the first of September, 1866.

Proposals will be received for doing each kind of work in a separate contract, viz: the stone work, the brick work, and the carpenter and millwright work, or for doing all under one contract. Security will be required that the work will be done according to contract. The Directors reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

Bids properly endorsed can be addressed to W. W. BUCK, President of said Company, at Oregon City.

Plans and specifications of said building can be seen at Meyers & Ralston's store, in Oregon City.

By order of the Directors.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR.—Mr. Hendee has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair; can get different positions of the face and all sizes of heads, can put a half dozen heads on the space of a half dollar; can put a whole family of heads on a common sized card, and will sell pictures cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style pictures called the Porcelain or Sun Pearl, so much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr. H. is now prepared to do as good work and in as great variety of style as any Gallery in Portland. Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap16dtf

City and County Notices.

Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Common Council of the City of Portland, propose to improve that portion of Second Street in said City lying between the North line of Pine Street and the North line of Madison Street, except that portion crossed by Washington and Salmon Streets, by grading and paving with Nicolson pavement, and by constructing sidewalks of two inch plank, with curbing of plank six inches thick and eighteen inches wide. The sidewalks to be constructed in form and manner similar to those lately built on Madison Street, between First and Second Streets.

The notice published by order of this Council of the proposed improvement of said street by McAdamizing, dated March 22d, 1866, is hereby revoked.

Published by order of the Common Council.

DR. PERRAULT CONTINUES TO TREAT PRIVATE AND CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, SCROFULA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, SPERMATORRHEA, IMPOTENCE, STERILITY.

DR. PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory and Vigor, etc., resulting from injurious habits, contracted in youth, or excesses in maturity, which produce constitutional debility and premature decline.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and injudicious use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Diseases of the Bladder, Gravel, [illegible] will be cured in a few days, without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the womb, Suppression of the Menses, or Pain, Flowing, Nervousness, Pain, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Side, Headache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR. PERRAULT, corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.

To whom seeking his advice a plain statement of their case will be given, whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. We pledge our [illegible] to make well; honest in our dealings; frank in our opinions; moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried this Doctor, and that celebrity Physician, [illegible] and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing as consultation is free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed DR. J. PERRAULT, M. D., corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 878, Post Office, San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. BIOT'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their immense sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. ap5d[illegible]

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1866, by J. [illegible], Esq., District Attorney on behalf of the United States against "Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars," alleging in substance that on the [illegible] day of February, A. D. 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars [illegible] were [illegible] the stamps thereon so affixed, that the boxes could not be opened without defacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and praying process against said Cigars, that the same may be declared forfeited, and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty-two boxes of Cigars, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday, the 14th day of May, A. D. 1866, at [illegible] o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"
THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE
BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered systems. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—
DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the
CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the
MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor,—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to
CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the City of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a complete assortment of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper size wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel [illegible] commend it to the better judgment of all who are capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 350 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to get up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,
